WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—I know you are anxious to know who is to be nominated on both tickets.

Well, here is who was nominated in the lobby of the Mayflower Hotel in less than an hour's listening.

"Watch Lowden, the farmers are naming the man this year."

"They will tie up for a week, somebody will mention Coolidge and that will be the pay off."

"Look out for Heflin if they nominate Smith."

"George of Georgia is the dark horse.'

"Donahey can carry Ohio, even if he ain't running."

First U. P. Church Members To Meet

Will Decide Upon Matter Of Site For New Church Building It Is Expected

Because the congregation must settle all problems as to the relocating of the First U. P. church, a meeting of the membership of the church has been called for January 23, announces J. Lee McFate, president of the church board of trustees.

The action was taken at a meeting of the trustees and the sessions, held Wednesday evening at the home of J. Clyde Gilfillan.

While as yet there has been no time nor place set for the meeting, Mr. McFate thinks that it is probable that the meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A., where the congregation is now having services.

At this meeting the question of relocating the church, or rebuilding on the present site will be thrashed out, asserts Mr. McFate.

Pymatuning Dam Project Is Given New Impetus Here

Two Hundred And Fifty Attend Commerce Chamber Meeting Last Night

SHARON MAN TALKS OF NEED FOR DAM

State President Of Chamber Of Commerce Gives Inspiring Address

Greeted by thunderous bursts of applause, three speakers brought two distinct messages to the 250 members of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, who assembled in the Crystal ballroom of The Castleton Wednesday evening for the second membership dinner meeting to be given by the Chamber.

Need Pymatuning Dam.

"No city can grow beyond its water supply, and so it is imperative that the people of New Castle—the Chamber of Commerce and the various civic organizations—get behind the Pymatuning dam project, that it may be made a reality. In the Shenango valley the results will be limited only by the vision and the foresight of the people," was the warning brought by the Hon. Fred T. Fruit of Sharon secretary of the Beaver and Shenango Valleys Conservation association.

Ralph J. Ferris, engineer in charge of the Pymatuning dam project, also spoke to the gathering.

State President Here.

Presenting the cause of the local Chamber of Commerce, its aims and ideals, the second speech of the evening was made by George E. Foss, general secretary of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Foss pointed out many of the defects of some chambers and suggested remedies.

It was the most enthusiastic meeting that ever has been held by the membership, was the opinion of Thomas W. Dickey, chairman of the forum meeting committee, who acted as toastmaster, and Alfred W. Chilton, secretary of the local chamber. The ball room was packed to capacity. A special table was reserved for the city and county officials.

Sees Activity.

David S. Pyle, president of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the guests and the members with a short address.

"I wish to welcome all of you to the second membership dinner of the

News' Man Gets Views Of Andy Gump While Enroute To Pittsburgh

Andrew Gump, arch enemy of poverty, the magician who expects to transform the hovels of the poor into bungalows with sun parlors, the man who is giving away one billion dollars in American money, passed through New Castle Wednesday on his way to Pittsburgh.

The Golden Rain Maker's train stopped for a few minutes to take on water and as a testimonial to the fireman, Mr. Gump got out and presented him with a solid gold funnel, sized so that it could be used for filling all kinds of tanks, mechanical or human.

"I am investigating the baby shortage in Pittsburgh" said Mr. Gump "and I expect to be there long enough to get rid of a small contribution, $10,000,000.00 to be exact. After that

Inquiry Board To Visit Scene Of S-4 Ramming

Will Witness Re-Enactment Of S-4 Crash By Sister Ship At Disaster Location

THIRTY-TWO BODIES HAVE BEEN LOCATED

Inquiry Board Will Talk With Salvage Officials Regarding Rescue Work

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—The spot off Wood End Light, Cape Cod, where the submarine S-4 lies 102 feet under water with eight of her forty dead still entombed, was the objective today of the special naval court of inquiry.

Steaming out of the harbor from the Charlestown Navy Yard aboard the U. S. S. Maury, members of the court and newspaper men passed Chelsea Naval Hospital, where, in wire baskets draped with American flags, lay fifteen bodies recovered from the wreck yesterday. James Herbert Taylor, chief of the navy identification office had forwarded the finger prints to Washington. Later the bodies, like the seventeen previously recovered, will be forwarded to relatives or to National Cemeteries for burial.

The naval court planned a day at Provincetown—to observe a re-enactment of the crash by the maneuvering of a sister ship of the S-4 as she runs along the inner trial course, where the S-4 was finishing her standardization tests when she was rammed by the coast-guard destroyer Paulding on December 17th, and to talk informally with salvage officials aboard the U. S. S. Falcon, flagship of the Provincetown salvage fleet.

Eight Still Entombed

Thirty-two bodies have been recovered from the S-4. All were located by naval deep sea divers in the engine and motor compartments, convincing salvage officials that there had been a scramble for these compartments soon after the crash. The forward Torpedo compartment, from which Lieutenant Graham N. Fitch and his five men sent out tappings, has not been explored by divers.

Mrs. Wilfred Short of Wilmington avenue is recovering slowly after an illness of some length.

Party Lines Are Split Over S-4 Disaster Probe

Democrats Fight For Separate Investigation Of Recent Sub Disaster

SECRETARY WILBUR CENTER OF ATTACK

Republican Insurgents Back Administration's Program For Civilian Inquiry

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Coolidge's request for a civilian inquiry into the S-4 submarine disaster was made a party issue" in the senate today while Democrats fought for a separate senatorial investigation into numerous recent naval losses.

The drawing of party lines over the S-4 crash was revealed when the senate naval affairs committee met to consider the resolution, adopted by the house, which would create a presidential commission of civilian experts to probe the disaster. Contrary to their attitude upon similar questions in the past, the Republican insurgents were reported lining up with administration ranks in opposing the Democratic program.

Attack Inquiry.

The Democrats meanwhile held out for a senatorial inquiry. They attacked the proposed civilian investigation as an attempt to "whitewash" the navy because the commission would be appointed by the president on recommendations of the secretary of the navy.

The insurgent viewpoint was expressed by Senator Howell (R) of Nebraska, a member of the naval affairs committee.

"I don't think it necessary to have a senate investigation at this time," said Howell. "I am inclined to follow the plan adopted by the house. If this proposed inquiry should prove unsatisfactory, there will be time enough then to have the senate act."

Senator Nye (R) of North Dakota, another insurgent, echoed Howell's stand. He said he expected to vote for the house resolution and against

Believe Coolidge Will Sound Peace Chord In Havana

Interest In Pan-American Congress Intensified By Coolidge And Lindbergh

FEW COMMITTEE MEETINGS HELD

Hope President Coolidge Will Strike Cordial Greetings To Latin-America

(International News Service)

HAVANA, Jan. 12.—As the time approches for the Pan-American congress, interest is intensified in the speech of President Coolidge—A speech that is expected to mark a new epoch of cordiality in the relations between the United States and Latin-America.

It is accepted in advance that President Coolidge will stress America's friendship for all the countries of Central and South America, declaring that it is the wish of the United States to see them all prosper in peace.

Much Interest In Visit

Although a number of delegates are already on hand they are spending most of their time sight-seeing. Some conferences have been held but no important decision made.

The people of Havana seem more interested in the visit of President Coolidge and Col. Charles A. Lindbergh than in the outcome of the conference itself.

While some of the more fiery orators may attack the policy of the United States, particularly towards Nicaragua, it is generally believed that these explosions will not amount to much.

BELL COMPANY FIGURES SHOW NEW CASTLE 53,026

The development of the telephone, and how its rise is paralleled in the growth of the city was discussed this morning by John Rankin Dunfee, city manager for the Bell Telephone company.

"In 1910 there were but 3,200 telephones in the whole of New Castle," declares Mr. Dunfee. "In 1915, there was an increase of 1,500 phones, bringing the total up to 4,700, while in 1920, when the population of the city was 44,938, the number of telephones in use was 7,500. In the next five year period, ending December 31, 1925, the jump in the number of stations added was much greater than ever before. In this period over 3,000 phones were added, making the total 10,133. And now, taking the figures available December 31, 1927, there are 11,500 stations, and the population of the city is 53,026.

"Or, on another scale, in 1920 there were 13.8 phones in the city per hundred people. In 1927, this jumped to 17.3 phones per hundred. On a percentage basis, it would work out that

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Ruth Snyder and her paramour, Henry Judd Gray, must die in the electric chair tonight for the brutal murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband, Albert Snyder, art editor, unless Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing, of his own volition, desires to delay the execution until tomorrow night or Saturday night.

Attorney General Albert Ottinger formally announced at one o'clock this afternoon that he had reached a formal decision that the order of Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy, saying Mrs. Snyder's execution until tomorrow "was illegal and cannot act to stay the execution."

Attorney General Ottinger said he would have his formal decision completed in about half an hour.

"The purport of the decision is that I hold that Justice Levy's order was illegal and cannot stay the execution set for tonight unless the warden of Sing Sing, of his own volition, desires to delay the execution until later in the week," Ottinger announced.

In view of the Ottinger decision it was reported at the capitol that Warden Lawes, later in the day, would issue a statement saying whether he would carry out his original intention of sending Mrs. Snyder and Gray to their death tonight.

"It will be up to Warden Lawes to say whether Mrs. Snyder and Gray are to die in the chair tonight," Ottinger declared.

Suggest Numerous Projects To Be Sought In This City

If you were to suggest a five-fold program for the New Castle Chamber of Commerce—projects for the betterment of the Community—what would your platform be? At the first meeting of the membership of the Chamber, cards were distributed, asking members to form five projects, vital to the community, for which the Chamber should work. Results of the voting were given out at the meeting held Wednesday evening.

Heading the list, 18 persons thought new industries would be the most vital thing that the Chamber could work for. The next most important project, according to the opinion of the members, is a Union Passenger Station, getting 17 votes. Fourteen votes were given for work on an airport for the city. Nine persons thought that adequate traffic regulations would be a good thing for the community, while eight advocated the increase in operation of existing industries. Six persons wanted more adequate parking facilities. More bridges received five votes.

Many other projects received three or four votes each, such as a public golf course, more public parks, a ship canal, widening and resurfacing the main streets, and bringing the main line of the P. and L. E. railroad into the city.

only recently was promoted to his new post.

Ranking the airplane with the fast cruiser as the most stressed instruments in the new $750,000,000 naval building program Hughes said:

Must Gain Control.

"Control of the air must be gained and maintained."

He told the committee that the airplane and light cruisers will be the 'eyes of the fleet' that airplanes will bomb and torpedo battleships, lay smoke screens, direct gun fire and lead in shore attacks.

Although he did not request more fighting planes to man the proposed five new aircraft carriers, a high naval expert declared that the admiral's program would mean 1,400 more planes for the navy—doubling the present five year program.

"The statement of Hughes is the greatest indorsement of the airplane that has ever come from a high ranking officer now in either the army or navy," said Representative Woodruff, (R.) of Michigan, who instigated the aircraft investigating that culminated in the General "Billy" Mitchell court-martial and the present $150,000,000 aviation program.

"It means a new policy," asserted Representative McClintic (D.) of Oklahoma, another naval affairs committee man who believes the airplane is mightier than the battleship.

Hughes advocated building aircraft carriers to the full limit of 135,000 tons allowed in the 5-5-3 ratio with Great Britain and Japan.

I do not know what city will take my attention."

"In a survey I had made of various cities and towns, I notice that New Castle has an unusual number of automobiles" said Mr. Gump. "Now at first blush this may look like the result of prosperity but it isn't. The reason for so many automobiles is that the people have to ride because of fallen arches."

"My next step will be to devise a bigger and better arch supporter for the flat footed of New Castle. My plan would be to have a gold supporter with platinum tips. The platinum tips would prevent rusting when the wearer gets his feet wet."

"I may meet some opposition from the automobile dealers" said he, "but failure is not in the lexicon of a Gump. Thought is followed by action and by this time next year every sufferer in New Castle will have as springy a walk as a slack wire performer."

As the conductor threw the engineer a highball, Mr. Gump was asked if there was anything he cared to leave in New Castle as a memento of the brief visit here.

"There is" he said, "I am going to leave things just as I found them."

the Democratic plan of a senate inquiry.

The Democratic position was explained by Senator Copeland (D) of New York, who declared his associates were not seeking to oust Secretary of the Navy Wilbur.

Not After Wilbur.

"I feel an investigation should be made by the naval affairs committee," said Copeland. "The committee represents the senate and the American people and as long as it has charge of all appropriations for the navy, it ought to know how that money is being spent. The committee is fully capable of understadning the technical questions that arise and I believe the inquiry would develop many collateral matters that should be brought to the public's attention. The American people will never be satisfied if the administration investigates itself and then gives a coat of whitewash."

"Are you after Wilbur's scalp?" he was asked.

"No, we don't care about scalps," Copeland replied. "The navy is being run by bureaucrats so it makes no difference who serves as secretary of the navy. The heads may come and go but the system goes on forever."

The administration seemed likely to win in the committee room.

It will be remembered that there are 17.3 phones in the city to every 100 people. Well, in Paris, the percentage is 8.5, in London, England, it is 6.6; in Dublin, Ireland, 3.2! in Shanghai 1.5; in Rome, Italy, 2.2; and in New Castle, England, 3.5."

AN EXAMPLE FOR CONGRESSMEN

INSPIRED by the sinking of the S-4 and the failure of the navy to raise the sunken submersible in time to save the lives of those of its crew not killed outright by the collision, Congressman LaGuardia, of New York, prepared a lengthy speech attacking the navy from secretary to sailor for shortcomings which, the speech was to point out, were made apparent to all by the submarine disaster.

Being a lengthy speech, it will be seen it was designed to be delivered in the house of representatives and "extended in the Record," but before unburdening himself of his righteous indignation before his colleagues in congress Representative LaGuardia conceived the quite original idea of learning something about that of which he was to speak. So he obtained permission to take a cruise in a sister ship of the ill-fated S-4, and for thirty-six hours shared the life of a submarine crew on the surface and in the depths of the ocean. So ill did he think of the navy, he must have felt, upon embarking, that he was taking his life in his hands.

Back from his adventurous search for facts with which to rock congress and the nation he took that previously prepared speech—which was to have been verified and added to by the cruise—and tore it up. His experience had taught him how much easier it is to navigate a submarine from the halls of congress than from the conning tower and that there was a lot of "loose misinformation" about the S-4 accident.

Mr. LaGuardia's precedent, widely emulated by his colleagues, will cut the nation's printing bill and prevent a lot of misinformation from getting loose.

SENSIBLE FLYING

THIS flight from New York to Miami which recently completed is of course not quite so spectacular as some which we have witnessed in recent months.

It did not involve crossing thousands of miles of water in a land plane; it did not involve reckless gambling on the weather; it did not involve, in event of engine trouble or something of the sort, untold trouble for ships, dirigibles and other airplanes.

In short, for those who see in aviation only a source of excitement, it must have been something of a flop. But for those who take their aviation seriously, who are interested in routes, airports and the various facilities and information which must be provided if flying is to undergo an extensive development, it made its appeal to them for exactly the same reason that it made no appeal to sensation-seekers—because it was safe, sane and reasonably sure. Such flights help aviation.

Stunt flights, undertaken from giddy motives, do not help aviation at all but rather hurt it, for they tend to identify it with irresponsible people. We need more flights like this one avers the New York World. And if those who undertake them find the cheering a little thin when they land, let them be consoled by the fact that sober citizens have never been noted for whooping loudest when the band begins to play.

AS OTHERS SEE US

THE American, with his keen nose for news, with his curiosity about what other folks are doing and saying and experimenting, gets a fair day-by-day picture of what is going on in Europe. But the reverse is not true. Europe persists in believing that we are something raw and untamed and particularly uncivilized.

The average reader of a European newspaper thinks that all Americans wear huge goggles, chew gum, droop a big cigar from the left end of their mouth and start all polite conversation with: "Say bo, I'll tell the world!"

Nor is that all. America as presented to him is made up of movie stars, divorce court defendants, gunmen, hijackers, bootleggers and freaks.

Which, perhaps, accounts for their great astonishment when they find us the most prosperous nation on earth and with a very neat habit of constantly cornering more and more of the world's business.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

OF WHAT VALUE?

Twenty-five questions were submitted to country school children to determine their information and what they were most interested in. The question: "Of what value are snakes?" interested them the most. How often we hear adults as well as children ask such questions. "What use is a mosquito? Why the weeds? What good it a rat? So go the questions. These questions reflect the ancient belief that the earth was made exclusively for man and his comfort. Things do not have to have a use. Many things have no use and no value. They are developments of life—life which takes all sorts of forms. The world is the world of all living creatures, not merely the world of man. We seem to be afflicted with an incurable egotism. We can't understand how anything can live which isn't of some USE to us.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

WHEN THE BOY SETS OUT

The ships set out and the trains depart,
And in silence the mothers weep,
For the work of the world in shop and mart
Has called for the boys they'd keep.

For boyhood is over and ever more
With men they must fight their way,
And the mothers of boys the world wide o'er
Stand mute on the parting day.

Oh, it hurts down deep as they turn away
In the work of the world to roam,
But better a man at his task today
Than an idler kept at home!

And if he were deaf to the world's loud cry
For the courage and strength of men,
The tears which now come to your mother eye
Would never be dried again.

Though women have wept for the boys who go
Since ever the world began,
Smiles shall follow the tears which flow
When the lad becomes a man.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 4:55. Sun rises tomorrow 7:22.

Those who are certain there is more drinking since prohibition are probably judging others by themselves.

Over in Ohio a nice looking cigarette smoking young matron is being grilled for killing her husband with a claw hammer because he did not want her to go to Cleveland to a bridge party. Oh, hum.

There are ladies who do get so fat that they lose their figures completely. And they don't seem to care what any one thinks when they get that way and two of them will even waltz together if they cannot make their husbands waltz with 'em.

We have noticed so far this year that 1928 is not going to be a Mind-Your-Own-Business-Year.

A bimbo named Mules stood out on the highway and poked a shotgun full of slugs into the body of a boy friend he did not like because the boy friend had shot a hole in his foot at some time. Perhaps with a name like that they make the jury believe he is a jackass.

An effort has been made for 64 years to have the room in which congress meets ventilated. There surely must be some place where the hot air escapes surely or that place would have blown up long ago.

A criminal tendency is often made the vehicle to carry the symptoms of insanity when some cold blooded murderer looks for an avenue to escape punishment for his crimes. Some of them even try to look crazy when they have to.

The chief of police at Miami, Florida, says that Scarface Al Capone, one of the most artistic murderers and gunmen who claims Chicago as his voting place, can stay in Miami as long as he behaves himself, but if he makes one move with a machine gun he will have to get out of that city. One move with a machine gun on Flagler street in that burg will mean about 40 funerals so the chief is not so severe with Scarface. And there are some New Castle people right in the vicinity of the main street of Miami also.

We have noticed that no effort is being made to keep secret the kind of clothing—or whatever it may be called—now being worn by the best half of the humans now inhabiting the earth.

When Henry Ford was asked quite a personal question by a reporter at his own private automobile show in New York he replied: "I do not know and do not give a damn." We have always thought that Hen was more or less of a mollycoddle and we hail with great joy the good news that he speaks our language.

At a convention of plumbers the scarcity of work must have been discussed because the delegates were advised to go after old houses that did not have modern plumbing and make work for themselves by modernizing them at least as far as plumbing could do it. The plumbers are on the right track because old houses will stand for more plumbing than the new ones ever could stand for and it is so easy to find fault with some of the plumbing already in.

You can talk about luck at the race track and at the stock exchange, but we are here to tell you there are only two places where you are sure of finding luck—in the dictionary and in hard work.

People should be careful about telling a lie. You are just as big a liar as anybody if you tell something that some one else told you that is not true. It's hard to kill the effects of a lie even after people know it's a lie.

We heard that the suggestion we made in this column some days ago about a children's home to take care of the children who need care not now provided, is meeting with some response. If there is anything more important than looking after the boys and girls who need help we would like to know what it is. The old poor farm would be an ideal place to carry on this great work.

When Col. Lindbergh gets all of his medals and presents together he will have to build a burglar proof warehouse in which to store them. They may come handy if he ever goes broke as he can hock them in most any city.

Fable: They had to choose between a new rug and new tires, and they bought a new rug.

FORMER RESIDENT WRITES

Hendersonville, N. C.
Dec. 7, 1927.

Mr. Fred Rentz,
New Castle, Pa.
My Dear Friend:

Enclosed please find check to continue my subscription to the News as we cannot get along without the News and I guess you won't send it if you do not get another check from me.

We have been down here almost a year now and we cannot get along without the paper from our home town. When I get home with the mail there is a race on to see who gets the paper first. Paul, Jr., wants to see the comics and Mrs. Papenhausen wants to read the news from home. You see we still call New Castle "home".

Although it takes two days for the News to get here I read it in preference to papers published in this section as it has better press news and editorials. I almost forgot to mention that the papers here do not have such good "Hints and Dints" as you get off. Now don't swell up over the compliments but some day I will send you a paper from here and you can see that I have told the truth.

We have had some cold weather here and a few flakes of snow but in general the climate here is delightful and the health of Mrs. Papenhausen and Paul, Jr., is greatly improved.

There are a number of former New Castle people living here now which makes us feel more at home.

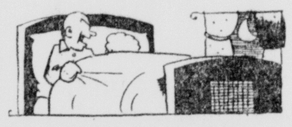

The country around here is certainly beautiful, some call it the second Yellow Stone of America. We have fine wide concrete roads over the mountains, some of which are over a mile high.

If you and Mrs. Rentz ever come this way be sure and stop and look us up.

Things are a little quiet in this section now, but there has been big cotton and tobacco crops in this section and everything indicates a big year.

Wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours,
PAUL PAPENHAUSEN.

Doubtless the twin-bed idea was originated by a man whose wife liked to eat crackers in bed.

Indeed this is a dizzy old world. The nearer some people get to the top the more overbalanced they become.

That big Democrat dinner at Washington tonight might end in a big row if the right people attend it. Gov. Smith thinks it not good enough for him to attend and Mr. Bryan was the big man at most of the feeds held there in the past quarter of a century.

Every time we read about the ladies who slug their husbands with claw hammers and sash weights we cannot feel kindly to that species of husband elimination. And when we read of all the harrowing details previous to the execution we sometimes think the murderers should not be kept so long.

A man was sent to prison for five years in New York for stealing a one cent memorandum book. Stealing is stealing, no matter how trivial the theft, but most people seem to think the best thing to do is to steal a whole lot—and most of them try it.

On Tuesday evening of this week we went to the spaghetti supper at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. After the supper we went up to the main auditorium and saw the wonderful picture being shown there. Then we went into the large lodge room where the ladies of the Eastern Star were putting on a fine play. After that we went to the ball room to the dance and were home and in bed by about 12:30. This made four events we attended in one evening under the same roof. There is no finer building in this country than our own Scottish Rite Cathedral and it is a real civic center.

There are just two kinds of wives: (1) those who boss their husbands, and (2) dumb ones.

Some guests converse entertainingly at dinner and others get enough to eat.

It helps you to forgive your enemy if you get busy and make more money than he does.

The assertion that everybody in America is prosperous and contented would be more convincing if there were fewer "accidental" explosions.

If sentiment doesn't impel people to give you things worth keeping, it shouldn't impel you to keep the junk

Doubtless the upper class is the one that thinks a week-end consists of five days.

The bull Lindbergh saw killed probably didn't sicken him any more than a lot of it he has heard since the Paris flight.

Nature is funny, and many of those who now buy "soft drinks" would prefer water if it cost a nickel a glass.

AMERICANISM: Feeling superior to foreigners; wishing you could talk their language.

How to get promoted? Well, work hard and make yourself a necessity and let the boss know you think him a wonder.

The hard part of being a good executive consists in swallowing your envy of the abler men you have hired.

There would be fewer forest fires if guards could keep saps out of the forest when the sap is out of the trees.

Ah, well; whoever follows Coolidge, the people will learn to think him great and will feel safe again.

If your trouble is so obscure that five specialists are needed to diagnose it, your income tax is something over $7,584.

All is not lost. It is still possible to find communities where the game of billiards is considered wicked.

Looking Over the Water.
The World's Real Ocean.
Where's the $1,200 Man?
Alaska, Champion Bargain.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

SAN SIMEON, Cal., Jan. 12.—This spot, on the edge of the Pacific Ocean, supplies texts for sermons, or philosophical musing—especially at four in the morning, with the white line of the surf visible in the moonlight.

You see only rolling breakers and gray water beyond, but you know of things that you cannot see.

Asia is across the water, and Ceylon pearlfishers are going "all naked to the hungry shark;" old temples of India tangled in the jungle; 400,000,000 patient Chinese bearing their burdens; 60,000,000 clever Japanese ruling their neighbors, because they borrow knowledge; Koreans and Filipinos crying for independence that they won't get, because they are not ready for it; sacred monkeys, around a Hindu temple; sacred snakes, worshiped in a Chinese temple, and yellow gold, the important power everywhere.

To the south shines a gigantic planet, with its own little "ring" of mist, defying the greater light and bigger ring of the moon. More important, to men in their boats, is the little San Simeon lighthouse, flashing its intermittent light on a rocky point to the north.

That light shines over its path of water, lights and warn of rocks close by. Such are the wisdom and science of man, lighting our way in this little corner of space, which is the limit of our knowing and thinking.

Those that live along the little eastern ocean should come here, see the world's real ocean, and know for themselves how hard it is for a human mind to think across interstellar space to our nearest star neighbor.

With the rising of the sun, comes Steve of San Luis Obispo, bringing the latest edition of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and that newspaper, with news of Alaska, in big letters, reminds you of interesting and profitable things too far away.

From the Seattle P. I. you learn that it is hard to make a mistake, when you buy on this continent. Seward bought Alaska from Russia for $8,000,000. The purchase was really engineered as a plausible way to hand American money to certain Russians that needed it. "Seward's Folly," that purchase was called. Since this country has owned it, Alaska has sent us $366,000,000 in gold and $110,000,000 worth of furs, among other things.

This great traffic from Alaska is enriching Seattle, and the process has only begun. Publishers are interested in two pulp and paper mills, to be built in Southeastern Alaska, to cost more than $10,000,000 each and produce 500 tons daily. You'll never pick up such a bargain as Seward got in Alaska, but buy something in this country. Take care of it, and, if you pick wisely, it will take care of you.

The big problem is to make sure that each has a fair chance, and that we hold what we have, in the way of prosperity. That we really have prosperity, compared with other times, and other countries, is easily proved.

H. Struckmann, president of the International Cement Corporation shows this writer an urgent appeal sent broadcast throughout the industrial populations of Belgium, demanding for skilled workers an annual wage of $428 a year.

Consider that, and then consider this: A generous man left his fortune to build in New York City comfortable apartments to be rented most reasonably to under-paid workers with families. The philanthropist stipulated that his apartments should be rented to workers getting not more than $25 a week. His executors have been trying, vainly, to find tenants to fill the apartments. Workers with families getting as little as $25 a week seem to be scarce, in New York.

Belgian workers, skilled and of the clerical class are striving for $428 a year, and a United States philanthropist hunts in vain for American workers getting as little as $1,200 a year.

The moral of that is plain, protect American workers from competition with underpaid foreign labor, and American manufacturers from competition with foreign manufacturers that can hire such cheap labor and Make it illegal for this country to buy cheap supplies, of any kind, in foreign countries, produced by cheap foreign labor.

Professor Ross of Wisconsin University is worried about over-population of the earth. Let married people have four children to a family, let the children marry and do likewise, and population doubles every 20 years. At that rate, this country in 40 years, could have 460,000,000 people, more than China, and in 100 years, our population would be 3,840,000,000, more than twice the earth's present population.

Five thousand and eight hundred French people known to have settled in Canada in 1680, now number 3,000,000. It all sounds frightening, but it is not. Henry George remarked that if a dog's tail grew throughout its life as it does in puppyhood, dogs would have tails 40 feet long. Providence prevents that, and it will take care of our population.

Texas, building last year more miles of railroad than any other state in the union, still has 50,000 square miles with no railroads. Those 50,000 square miles, under intensive cultivation, would easily feed 30,000,000 people.

And as human beings become civilized, they will marry later, regulate their families, and population will be balanced, without the aid of famine, war or plague.

"The Lord sees to it that trees do not grow in to the heavens, elephants do not have as many children as mice have, and at the present, the bigger the human family, the better.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

DEMOCRACY

Dean Inge of St. Paul's recently said that a government of, by and for the people is clap trap.

It doubtless is. But a government of, by and for a king or an oligarthy or any such thing is worse clap trap.

As far as we can see, almost all kinds of government are open to the accusation of being clap trap.

As far as getting anything done immediately is concerned, the dictator plan, such as is accomplished by Mussolini and Premio de Rivera, seems to be the best.

A democracy is not the most efficient form of government, but it is the only form where the majority rule.

It is the only form under which people are allowed to make their own mistakes.

The only way to improve is to bump your own nose, stub your own toe and learn from your own defeats.

Foolish and unstable as the people are they remain the best basis for any government, and a government slowly built up as a democracy has much more promise of long life than any absolutism.

America may be headed for disaster. Plenty of prophets tell us that it is, but so far its record has been the most astounding in the world's history.

Altogether the efficiency of democracy seems to be that it can easily get rid of bad rulers, although it is not so efficient in picking good ones always.

The question often overlooked is, "What is a government for?"

A government is not a people organized to accomplish something or to gain some advantage over another combined people, but it is organized to advance the interests of the people who make it up. The American government is a good one because the individuals who compose it are well off. The Russian government is a bad one because the individual people are bad off.

If we would keep our eye upon the individual more and less upon the combined individuals as a nation we should think more clearly of the problem.

The question after all is not what is better for a nation, but what is better for the people that compose it.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

MAY NOT BE SO HARSH

Refusal by the Federal District Court in St. Louis of the application of the St. Louis & O'Fallon Railway for an injunction restraining the Interstate Commerce Commission from enforcing its recapture order against that company involves principles and methods used by the Commission in its valuation of all railroad properties. The Commissions' valuations have been based upon wages and material prices averaged for five to ten years ended June 30, 1914, together with land values current at valuation dates. In using such a valuation as the basis of a recapture order against O'Fallon, the Commission added thereto the actual cost of property added to the railroad after valuation date, minus accrued depreciation.

Resisting the Commission's efforts to collect about $226,000 of so-called excess earnings the railway company contended that the Commission had not given due weight to the present cost of reproducing the property and cited numerous decisions of the Supreme Court holding that reproduction costs must be "considered". In this proceeding the O'Fallon Railway virtually represented all the railroads in their effort to defeat the valuation method adopted by the Commission.

Under the Expedition Act, appeal from the decisions of a court such as sat in this case go directly to the Supreme Court. This case will, of course, be appealed.

Although it has been represented that the issues presented by this case involves anywhere from ten to fifteen or twenty billion of value to be added to or excluded from the total valuation of all railroads, railroad lawyers for the most part say that from a practical point of view no such sum is involved. In their opinion, the real issue is whether the courts will finally direct the Commission to give greater weight than it appears to have done to the present reproduction cost as one of the criteria of value, and perhaps also whether it would be directed to accomplish its findings of value with a definite statement of the manner in which it gave weight to reproduction cost. So far the Commission has refused to make any specific statement on this point, or on its measure of "going concern" or other values, contenting itself with a flat assertion that its reported value is reached after full consideration of all matters bearing upon the question.

The theory upon which the Commission has justified its adoption of 1914 prices for property in place at valuation dates (which vary from 1915 to 1919 for different roads) is that the price level fairly represents actual cost of the railroads as constructed. The Commission holds that if the carriers are protected in their right to earn a fair return upon actual cost, with some allowance for going concern value and working capital fixed in the discretion of the Commission, they will have no ground for alleging confiscation and will have received all the return that can justly be claimed by owners of property who have voluntarily dedicated it to the public use. This is practically the "prudent investment" theory upheld in many quarters, notably by Justice Brandeis of the Supreme Court.

In Day's News

Sir Frederick Lugard, whose elevation to the peerage was among the notable New Year honors bestowed by King George, is a celebrated English colonial administrator, for many years high commissioner for northern Nigeria. He has had an adventurous career, and probably the most notable of his achievements was his race against time and France to secure a treaty with the king of Nikki. He left England in July, 1894, four days after a French officer had left France and, when the latter arrived with his treaty for signature, he found that Colonel Lugard had been there five days before. Lady Lugard is equally famous. She was Miss Florida Shaw, noted author and head of the colonial department of The London Times, and was the only woman witness before the Jameson raid committee.

You can't blame the South for feeling that way about Tammany. Other animals, as well as the donkey, fear the tiger more than the elephant.

C. B. D. CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

IN NEW YORK

It is possible to buy many things much cheaper in New York than in most cities. If a New Yorker keeps his eyes open for bargains he can live cheaply.

The reason why most New Yorkers do not choose to buy at the bargain rates constantly offered in many lines is that they shrink from encountering the cut-rate courtesy that goes with the cut-rate price.

I buy many theater tickets at a cut-rate agency. I am a regular customer at the place. But each time I go there I feel sorry for myself, because I know that my respect for the human race is being lessened by the terrible manners of the salesmen I am obliged to do business with there.

These hard-boiled cut-rate ticket salesmen stand behind counters on a runway that seems to be slightly elevated. Whether it is actually elevated I do not know. But the tough salesmen succeed in looking down upon their customers somehow. They give short and saucy answers. They hurl impudent retorts. They lavish a kind of slum dialect upon the defenseless heads of the patrons who are buying their bread and butter for them.

* * *

There is a large store where I spend a good deal of money every year for a great variety of merchandise. Recently I wrote a letter to the vice president of the concern, telling him that I would never think of spending a cent in his store if I could afford to buy where courtesy to the customer prevails. This store sells many articles at prices much lower than the prices obtained for the same or similar goods by other stores. But you get the cut-rate courtesy along with the bargains.

I often wonder what would happen if someone would set up a rival cut-rate ticket office, across the street from the hard-boiled shop, and specialize in courtesy to patrons. I think I know what would happen. Outraged customers would flock from the hard-boiled shop to the courteous shop, and no amount of coaxing would ever get them back.

* * *

Strangely enough, I never observed this cut-rate curtness in any other city. In the western cities that I am acquainted with, and in bargain stores in the South, I have always found salesmen and saleswomen who seemed anxious to please the customer, rather than eager to insult him.

I am very much in love with New York, but I would like the town even better if some enterprising southerner or westerner would come in and set up shop in competition with some of the hard-boiled bargain dispensers of the metropolis.

Victory Banquet By Bible Class

Plans Being Made For Elaborate Banquet At First M. E. Church

AFFAIR PLANNED FOR JANUARY 16

The Men's Bible class of the First M. E. church will enjoy a victory banquet in the church dining room Monday evening, Jan. 16, at 6:30, according to word given out by Archie Gordon, the class president.

An elaborate program has been announced for the banquet.

The guests will include the members of the class and their families.

The following speakers will discuss the results of prohibition from various angles. Dr. Charles R. Dawson, Westminster College, will discuss the subject from the educational viewpoint; Charles R. Davis for the lawyer's viewpoint; Thomas A. Myers from the banker's viewpoint; Dr. J. C. B. Douthett from the doctor's viewpoint, and E. B. Bartlett from the business man's viewpoint.

In addition to the above speakers, a number of delightful musical numbers will be enjoyed. Mrs. B. K. Thacker will take part in this part of the program and there will be an instrumental duet by Kenneth Myers and Edgar Beal. C. H. Martin will have charge of the pep singing.

Invocation will be pronounced by W. H. Cover. From present indications this will be one of the best banquets ever given by the men's class.

is that he is not an independent being. He cannot "go it alone" this side of the grave, and probably not thereafter. A fuller and franker recognition of our relationships, our responsibilities, and our obligations would make us happier mortals. Too many use up their energy in a vain struggle to run away from something which cannot be run away from. They seek an imaginary "independence." Such an independence is contrary to the principles of human life and society.

STRANGE MESSAGES

The sun is continually sending messages to the earth, says Michael Pupin, great scientist. Those messages are in the form of statis or radio fading or earth currents in submarine cables. We are familiar with the strange behavior of electricty but we do not understand it. We see results but we do not know "why." This will be the major problem of the next generation.

GETTING ALL FACTS

President Max Mason, of Chicago University, says the first two years of a college course should be devoted to a student's background of knowledge in general. During the last two years, and in graduate work the student ought to participate in actual research work.

There is too much time given to listening to uninspiring professors read lectures which are filled with facts discovered by somebody else a hundred years ago. Above all things students should be inspired in the search for new truth.

Former Maharajah Determined To Wed Rich Seattle Girl

(International News Service)

BOMBAY, Jan. 12.—The former Maharajah of Indore, whose engagement to Miss Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle, Wash., caused a furore throughout India, was reported to be ill in Ceylon today. According to word reaching here, both the ex-Maharajah and Miss Miller are at Nuwara Elyia, Ceylon, where the former is said to be confined to his room in a hotel.

The date of the contemplated marriage is still a secret, but it was learned that both the former Maharajah and Miss Miller have booked passage for Marseilles upon a French liner sailing at an early date. It was presumed that they might marry secretly and go abroad upon their honeymoon, or that they purpose to go to Europe until the excited comment in India has died down.

You cannot be attractive without a clear skin

EVERYBODY wants to be attractive. It is a great and just ambition. But no one can be attractive without a clear skin—you know that.

Do you realize the importance of pure, rich blood in preserving the health, and that the source of most skin disorders is in the blood?

Remove the cause, which is not in the skin itself, and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs, and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

When your system is filled with rich, red blood, you don't have that tired, languid feeling when you awake in the morning. Instead, you feel refreshed, ready to meet the world.

Your appetite is keen—you enjoy work or play—your skin is clear, cheeks naturally rosy.

All this because rich, red blood builds and sustains the body.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

—purely vegetable

"S.S.S. cleared my skin of pimples and blackheads. I think it a most wonderful blood medicine. Several of my friends are taking it for the same reason I did." Miss Margaret Frye, Lapel, Ind.

Worker From Near East Relief At Trinity Church

Ernest G. Chreiman, Executive Secretary Of Pittsburgh District To Speak

In accordance with the resolutions of the Ministerial Association appointing next Sunday as the day for the presentation of the Near East relief in the churches of New Castle, Ernest G. Chreiman, executive secretary for the Pittsburgh district, will be the speaker next Sunday morning in Trinity church at the 11 o'clock service.

Trinity church has taken a real interest in this deserving work of reclamation through the gifts of its members, the monthly gifts of the children in the church school, and the sale of articles made in the orphanages and centers on November 29. This was the first thing of the kind in New Castle. People who saw the work were delighted with it and found the prices very reasonable. The amount of goods sold was much larger than expected, netting $204.85.

It is believed, therefore, that there will be a large attendance next Sunday morning to hear Mr. Chreiman, because of the interest in what he represents. Several of the people of the parish who have traveled in Egypt, Syria, Greece and Palestine have expressed their hearty approval of the work and are expecting to be present.

Mr. Chreiman is a college man, being a graduate of the university in his native state, Minnesota. Under appointment of Mr. Vickery, national secretary, he traveled all through the countries involved as a consulting engineer in connection with the construction work and engineering projects which the Near East Relief had to undertake. Thus he is thoroughly conversant with the work at first hand. He brings to New Castle the viewpoint of a trained engineer who has been on the field, who is familiar with the religions of the Near East, the peoples and their social and economic problems. Mr. Chreiman became so interested in the human appeal of the work that his engineering contract completed, he accepted appointment as executive secretary of the Pittsburgh district.

This work has the hearty approval of the rector of Trinity, the Rev. Philip C. Pearson, who asks that at least one representative of each family connected with the church make a special effort to be present. He assures a hearty welcome to all who may come, whether or not they ordinarily worship at the corner of North Mill and East Falls streets.

Speeding Autos Killing Rabbits

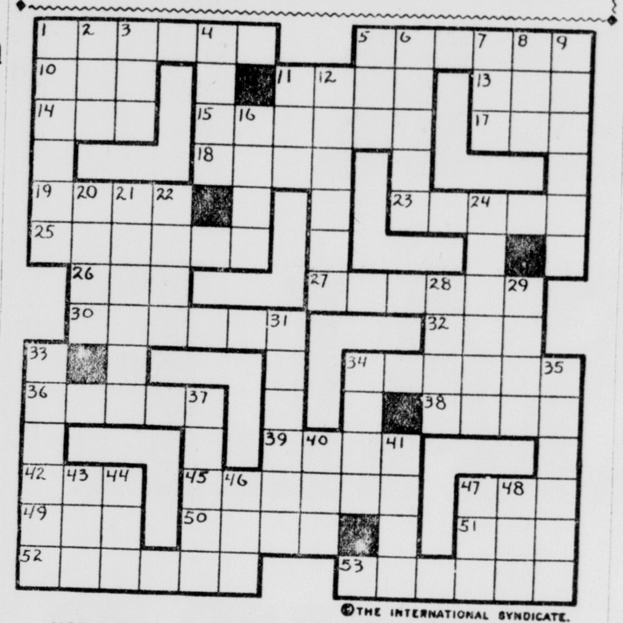

(International News Service)

LEWISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 12.—Kansas cotton-tail rabbits are excellent travelers, but poor judges of distance—and as a result scores are being killed in Mifflin county.

The rabbits, shipped here from Mifflin, Hutchinson and Versailles, Kansas, manage to weather their long trip east without evil effects, but once liberated in this region, they are slaughtered by motorists.

The rabbits persist in dashing across the highways in the path of speeding autos, and their judgment of distance almost always proves fatal to them.

"Electricity!— Keystone of the Industrial Arch"

Says Professor Irving Fisher

Professor of Economics, Yale University

"The United States laborer gets more real wages than the English laborer because he has from two to five times as much horse power to help him produce. Professor Moore, of Columbia University, has shown by mathematical statistics that wages go up or down as productivity goes up or down."

AMERICA'S industrial supremacy is the envy of the world.

A continuous flow of ample power, supplied by the country's electric power companies, has helped to make this supremacy possible.

America's industrial leadership rests on a policy of mass production. Through electrically driven machinery, American wage earners are enabled to turn out in a day more than any other workmen in the world. Thus American industry has been able to pay the American worker higher wages. Higher wages, in turn, have meant a higher public purchasing power and wider markets for American goods.

Through the foresight and initiative of the directing personnel of the electric power companies, American industry is supplied with four horse power for every worker, as compared with one horse power or less available to workers of other countries.

In the furtherance of practical human benefits, affecting the lives of everybody, electricity is the most vitally useful service of all social agencies.

This service has been developed through the American principle of individual initiative. To the degree that this principle is preserved and perpetuated will America's well-being be assured.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

FIRST AID TO THE AGED.

Peter thought that the ancient Blue Jay had fallen asleep so still was he. But as he watched the old bird opened his eyes and looked upon his anxious relatives who had clustered about him.

"Accept the thanks of the aged bird" said he. "But I had better not have called. By this time I might have been out of my misery. I no longer wish to live now that I am a burden to my people."

"Nonsense, Uncle!" cried Mrs. Blue Jay, briskly. "Don't talk such foolishness. Come on now and follow us. We will guide you to an open spot in the brook where the water runs fresh and clear. You will feel much better after you have had a drink. And after this one of us will always stay by you to warn you of any danger that may threaten. You shall never be scared again.

"How often, Uncle, dear, have I urged you not to take such long walks so far from home. If you had listened to me this would never have happened. But we will not talk about that now. When you have had your drink I shall bring you some nice meaty nuts that I have stored away in the nest and perhaps husband or one of the boys can find a berry or two, so don't you worry about not getting enough to eat. Now then off with you Careful! Go slowly and when you come to the end of the rail hop down on the ground and walk straight ahead. The snow is not deep there for the wind has blown it all away.

There I thought so! You feel better already, don't you? I knew you would once you knew that you were not going to be left alone."

Mother Blue Jay had placed herself on one side of him and on the other Peter recognized Mr. Blue Jay. Off the three started followed by other Blue Jays. Flying slowly to accommodated their pace to the uncertain steps of the old bird they guided him carefully to the nearby brook. Peter did not go after them—he thought that he would only be in the way but he watched the procession as long as they were in sight and never once did he see one of the flock show a bit of impatience at the slowness of the old fellow's progress.

Peter had thought that he was all alone and he was just wondering whether or not to go back to bed (for it was still very early in the morning) when a voice close to his ear made him jump.

"You don't think that we are such a bad lot now as you did. Boy do you?" it questioned eagerly and turning quickly about he found himself face to face with the oldest son. "Even if we do rob strange birds' nests we take care of our old folks and that is more than most of the birds do I can tell you."

"Why I never thought that you were a bad lot" declared Peter decidedly. "To be sure you Blue Jays have some bad traits but then so have the most of us and it is wonderful the way all of you watch over and take care of that old bird just as if he was a young nestling. I shall never forget that about you and I am mighty glad I found it out. How does it happen that you did not go with the others?"

"I didn't get back from the chase until after they had started" replied the eldest son. "And as long as there were so many of my family on guard I knew they didn't need my help so I flew here to talk to you. How do you like your break o' day visit in birdland?"

Next—"Going to Bed in the Morning."

Good News for Expectant Mothers

Doctor's Discovery Relieves Much Unnecessary Suffering

IT has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering experienced during expectancy, as well as at childbirth, is entirely unnecessary.

Dr. Holmes' discovery, "Mother's Friend," aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth!

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used "Mother's Friend" and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Start using Mother's Friend tonight—the sooner the better and write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Mother's Friend is sold by all drug stores. Bradfield Regulator Co., Desk 21, Atlanta, Ga.

Town And School News Of Bessemer Borough

BASKETBALL GAMES

With a 52-20 victory over Mt. Jackson Hi safely tucked away, the Bessemer Hi varsity team will travel to Shenango, Saturday, January 14, to meet Union High.

Great rivalry exists between Union and Bessemer. Although Bessemer was victorious during football season no one can tell how the score will stand after the first basketball game with them.

Coach Allen has been giving his men stiff practice every evening with the hope that they will at least be able to put up a good game Saturday.

GIRLS' GAME

After witnessing one of the most exciting games ever played on the Bessemer floor, students and citizens of the town are anxiously wondering what Union High girls will be able to do to the Bessemer sextet next Saturday night.

It was only after a long and hard struggle that the Bessemer Girls were able to win by three points over the Mt. Jackson girls last Friday night.

It is possible that the girls will be in better condition for this game than for the last one but it is certain that they will have to play a hard game to make the score that Bessemer desires.

NOON GAMES

In order to have more of its students interested in basketball, Bessemer High has organized class teams to play at noons. Through these class teams many students, who are not out for varsity have a chance to play.

The noon games started Thursday, January 5th, with a game between the Seventh and Eighth grade girls. The Eighth Graders were victorious with a score of 19-0.

The Seventh and Eighth grade boys played Friday noon. The Eighth graders were again victorious and the score was 15-2.

Monday the Ninth and Tenth Grade Girls battled. This was a very close and exciting game. The tenth grade had a score of 5 and the ninth a score of 3 at the end of the game.

Tuesday the tenth grade boys won from the ninth graders by a score of 9-5.

At all of these games a fine spirit is shown. The cheering sections belonging to the eighth and ninth graders have been especially good.

FOOTBALL SWEATERS

Bessemer High school letter man, who have played high school football for the last time, got their sweaters last Monday.

The sweaters are black pullovers on which are placed a large red chinchilli "B", on the left sleeve are service stripes.

Eleven sweaters were given out. Only one of these, the sweater belonging to Macklin, bore four service stripes; Serjak got three service stripes.

LYCEUM SERIES

The Rainbow Girls Sextet will present a musical program on January 18th in the B. H. S. auditorium. This is the third number of the Lyceum Course.

ACTIVITIES

Friday evening the Bessemer High School Orchestra will play for the regular Friday night show. The show this week is to be "Senorita."

GIRL SCOUTS

Tuesday afternoon the Girls of the Scout Club spent the Activity Period drawing flags. Each flag had to be drawn in correct proportion—if you have ever tried it you will appreciate how difficult the task is.

ARTS AND CRAFT

The Arts and Crafts Club spent the Activity Period on putting the finishing touches on their trays and beginning their new work. The new work planned for the club is the making of parchment shades. The materials with which the girls are working are linseed oil and wall paper of various designs.

The members, well pleased with their previous works, are expecting these shades to be exceptionally beautiful.

JOURNALISM CLUB SEES PLAY

"My Maryland," one of the greatest operettas ever produced, was seen by the Journalism Club, Wednesday evening.

FRESHMAN SKATING PARTY

The ninth graders discussed a skating and coasting party last Thursday afternoon and held it that night. The reason for the hurried preparation was to give the upper classmen less time to hear about it. Number Four Quarry was chosen as the place for a good time, as it was a huge glassy sheet. Despite the difficulty in getting down to the ice, at 8 o'clock, twenty-five or thirty Freshmen were gathered together. Some of the girls were learning to skate, and the results were rather strenuous.

At 9 o'clock, "hot dogs" and cocoa were served. The cold Freshies soon made the "dogs" diminish and shortly after refreshments, the party broke up. The souvenirs were indigestion, numb fingers, frozen feet, or difficulty in sitting down. The Freshies are proud of the fact that they had such a party before the other classes, and there was no interference at that.

ANNUAL SCHOOL DIRECTORS' CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Lawrence County School Directors which was held Tuesday and Wednesday, January 10 and 11, was well attended.

This is an event to which all the members of the various school boards look forward, for they always get new and better ideas for their future work.

All of the Bessemer directors were present at some session of the meeting.

LADIES' LOYAL BIBLE CLASS

The Ladies Loyal Bible Class of the Presbyterian church of Bessemer will meet on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Russel Donaldson, the assistant hostess being Mrs. Charles Weitz.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

A number of Bessemer students and faculty were to attend John Drinkwater's play "Abraham Lincoln." The drama was to be given at the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Thursday evening.

COLLEGE GAME

Bessemer was well represented by a number of her faculty members at the Geneva-Westminster game on Wednesday evening.

WESTMINSTER GUILD MEETING

The Westminster Guild Girls held their regular meeting at the O'Neil home on Monday evening. The meeting was very short and Edna O'Neil was appointed to act as chairman, as the president was absent. The next meeting will be at the home of Margaret Carison and the new officers will be elected.

Home-made Supply of Fine Cough Syrup

Better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily prepared.

If you combined the valuable properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real healing power as there is in this home-made syrup, easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup, or clarified honey, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the throat tickle and heals the irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and it is splendid for bronchitis, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, which has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Irish President And Party Will Visit America

Will Board Liner Homeric At Southampton For Trip To United States

(International News Service)

LONDON, Jan. 12.—President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State and his party Wednesday entrained at Waterloo station bound for Southampton where they will board the liner Homeric to New York.

Commenting on his trip to the United States, President Cosgrave told the International News Service:

"I am going to the United States to thank the American people for all they have done for the Free State. I will express those thanks personally to President Coolidge. I am looking forward to my visit immensely."

President Cosgrave has strongly emphasized that his visit to America is not a political nature.

Estimate 125 Are Killed By Planes During Year 1927

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Casualties resulting from aircraft accidents in 1927 were estimated at 125 dead and about 100 injured by the commerce department aeronautics division Wednesday.

Exact figures for the first ten months of the year gave 108 dead and 88 injured. Inspectors, charged with reporting all accidents to the commerce department have not completed their November and December data.

Deaths and injuries in attempted trans-oceanic flights are not included, since these accidents are attended by special hazards.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A child of my acquaintance received, among her Christmas loot, one of those grotesque, sprawly French dolls. She shrank from it in distaste, and plainly indicated her preference for the simply-dressed baby-doll under the tree. Later she suggested giving the pretentious foreign doll to a woman of their acquaintance who had no children. Her mother protested, saying she would keep the toy for her own boudoir. But the little girl was terrifically positive in her reiterations that Fifi be given to the childless household. She seemed to have a deeply-rooted conviction that puppets of the sort belong where children are not. The whole incident struck me as being a keen summing up of the French doll business. I admire them in shop windows, but I cannot see that they have any place in real life, save in the showy dressing rooms of picturesque actresses or the purple patios of movie stars.

What shreds of glamour there might be draped around the business of the films were ruthlessly torn aside when Robert Sherwood made a play of Ring Lardner's short story, "The Love Nest." The film people were shown in this play, which had only a brief run, to be a shoddy bunch of mealy-mouthed morons, one pompous director especially being the target for the author's barbed sarcasms. Choosing a statue for the patio niche of this director's 32-room cottage in Beverly Hills made a scene to cause theatre-goers to chuckle knowingly. The director was at a loss to know what bit of statuary to put there. One of his yes-men bubblingly suggested Rodin's "The Thinker." Everyone seemed to think this a bright idea until Forbes, the English play-acting butler, suggested a statue of the Virgin. And the last tags of irony pinned to the play was the entrance of a moth-eaten property man with several statues of the Madonna, as a satirical fling at the eloping wife of the hero. I was sure, as I listened to the wise-crack of "The Love Nest" that there would be many playgoers from the outlands who would be mortally offended by the statue incident. It is all very well for New York to laugh raucously at names revered in simples places, but there are pious folk who would march out and demand their money back at such light mention of the Madonna's name.

A professor from one of the small sectarian universities in the south tells me that dancing is still frowned upon, even in the more enlightened circles. "The dreariest party I have ever attended," he said, "was a masquerade given last year by the seniors. Costumes and masks were donned, the guests paraded up and down, prizes were solemnly given, we all looked at each other for a time—and then went home!" Truly, a masquerade without dancing must be like a cheese sandwich without a dash of mustard. After listening to this man's account of the gayeties permitted in such institutions, I am surprised that so many denunciatory letters were written about "Elmer Gantry", because his unbiased story tallies perfectly with what Lewis wrote about conditions at such schools. "Some of the members of the faculty used to tell me about the unlicensed parties given in the town," my friend went on. "They were supposed to have been the most terrific orgies. But outwardly, the scene was without a ripple. The parents, most of them, would have withdrawn their sons and daughters if they had heard our chaperoned parties featured dancing. So long as the surface was kept smooth, nobody seemed to care. The other side of the picture was not so pleasant."

Charity Card Party Opposed

JERSEY SHORE, Pa., Jan. 12.—Declaring that the Jersey Shore Business and Professional Women's Club is "mortgaging the souls of some in order to clothe the bodies of others," Rev. Walter Gwynn has launched a campaign against the club's proposed charity card party.

Rev. Gwynn referred to card games as "a spiritual blight," and warned that they are the cause of "utter eternal ruin."

The club plans to raise money for local charity by sponsoring the card game.

Over Million Auto Tags Now Issued

Car Seen Bearing License Number A-128 Shows Second Million Being Issued

A car bearing Pennsylvania license number A-128 was noticed this morning which shows that license plates are now being issued in the second million as the letter A is used by the Highway Department of this state use that symbol to denote the first hundred thousand of the second million license plates.

License plates for the second, third, and fourth hundred thousand of the second million will bear the letters B, C, and D. Last year the number of licenses reached far into the second million as plates were noticed bearing numbers as high as D67-812. It is likely that this year tags may even reach the letter E.

Yet, is may not be possible that numbers go so high this year as some new designations are used such as the letter L for member of the state legislature and J for judge, etc.

Besides these letters used there are the letters O which stands for taxi, X which is used on dealers license and R, S, T, U, and Y used on trucks of different weight.

REPORT CANTON POLICE SHAKE-UP

CANTON, O., Jan. 12.—Mayor C. C. Curtis today declined to confirm or deny reports that at least 12 policemen are slated for removal on or before the next pay day.

Chief Hexamer declined to talk.

Although no additional city employes were dismissed today, it is expected that a score more will go.

James McHugh, weighmaster, is one of those Curtis says will be notified of his removal.

"My clothes wash whiter last longer, too -with this hard-water soap"

"RINSO is certainly the safest and easiest way to wash clothes I ever heard of! I pity women who still use the old way.

"Why, all you have to do is soak your clothes in the rich, creamy Rinso suds for a while before washing, and all the ground-in dirt loosens right out so you don't have to do any hard rubbing. Just soaking in Rinso's soft suds gets my wash sweeter and whiter than if I had spent hours scrubbing and boiling it. My clothes last longer, too!

"I find that Rinso goes farther than other soaps. That's because it's so sudsy. And it saves my hands—doesn't make them a bit red, because with Rinso I don't have to keep them in the hot suds."

... Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this one, which is from a woman living right around here...

Rich, creamy suds—in washer or tub

Even in the hardest water Rinso whips at once into soft, thick suds. Long-lasting suds that dirt and stains just can't resist.

In machine or tub, this granulated, hard-water laundry soap washes clothes the whitest white ever.

More than 32,000 demonstrators of washing machines use Rinso for whiter results. The makers of 32 leading washers recommend it for safety and for cleaner clothes.

Just great for tub washing! Saves all hard work. Get the BIG package of Rinso. It's all you need—no bar soaps, chips or softeners. For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on the package.

Start Campaign In Pittsburgh To Halt Gangster Murders

Every Law Enforcement Agency In Allegheny County Called Into Action

Seek To Exterminate Vice Syndicate Believed Responsible For 20 Killings

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—Every law enforcement agency in Allegheny county was scheduled to start a concentrated drive today to put an end to the numerous "gang murders" that have terrorized this city and vicinity, claiming more than 20 lives in the last year.

County authorities believe the crimes are the result of the concentration here of a ring of narcotic, white-slave and rum-running syndicate, and the murders are merely incidental to the operation of the vice ring.

The federal prohibition agents, the narcotic agents, the county detectives and other law enforcement divisions in Pittsburgh will work under a co-operative and co-ordinated system, if plans announced by their chiefs materialize.

U. S. District Attorney John D. Meyer, Prohibition Administrator John D. Pennington and District Attorney Samuel M. Gardner were scheduled to confer today and map out a plan of action against the operation of the vice syndicate.

The authorities are not certain the syndicate has made its headquarters here, but investigators report it has wide ramifications, extending into large cities all over the United States.

The murders attributed to the gang, authorities said, were merely elimination of undesirable individuals who either attempted to usurp power or had shown indications of weakness, and were believed by the syndicate leaders to be liable to "squeal".

Equity Proceedings On Dick Farm Start

H. C. Dick Wants Court To Release Property From Leasee

MERCER, Pa., January 12.—Equity proceedings before Judge J. A. McLaughry have been instituted that have their inception in coal leases taken on the Dick farm in New Wilmington township in 1864 by Henry Wick, J. F. Scott and others; in 1867 by J. C. Rose and 1882 by D. R. P. Lehman.

The farm is of 160 acres, the bill sets forth. The action is brought by H. C. Dick asking that the court release the property from the lease rights given under signature of his family members.

The bill sets forth that nothing has been done on the farm for years in mining, and that many of the heirs to the signers of these leases cannot be located, so old are the documents and so scattered the families.

The leases, properly recorded in Mercer county, rest as an obligation against the farm in case of transfer. It is to remove this that the equity proceedings are brought.

A royalty of $100 for every 500 tons of coal mined was to be paid. On every 1,000 tons the amount was $250.

Credit Exchange Grows Steadily

Now Has 240 Members, Manager Ray F. Hall Announces Today

With six new members added since the beginning of this week, there are now 240 members of the New Castle Credit Exchange announces Ray F. Hall, the manager.

"Although the Credit Exchange in New Castle, is but 14 months old, yet I believe that we have made a remarkable showing," declared Mr. Hall, in making the announcement. "In the city, there are some 500 retail merchants. Already almost half of them have recognized the worth of the Credit Exchange.

"And, if each of our members carry 300 accounts on their books, that would mean that each merchant would have available at a moment's notice 720,000 ratings.

"Last year at this time, the exchange, bearing in mind that it was just getting on a sound basis was as yet rather small, having 50 members. And now, with 240 actual members, I believe that we can feel satisfied with the showing we have made."

Five Under Arrest In Mexico City For Slaying Of Woman

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 12—Convinced that the crime was perpetrated for motives far baser than robbery, police today redoubled their efforts to identify the murderers of Frau Margarita Kleinwechter De Winter, a pretty young German matron.

Frau De Winter's mutilated body was found in her home at Coyoacan, a suburb of Mexico City, yesterday. Five peons, all workmen employed in construction work on the De Winter home, were arrested and held for questioning by the police.

At first it was thought robbery was the motive for the crime, but after interviewing a woman named Natividad Biancas and making an inventory of the articles in the murdered woman's home, police changed their opinion.

Motorists Warned Not To Choke Car

Push In Choke As Soon As Engine Fires, Urges Motor Club Manager

In spite of the warnings that have been issued, motor car owners are continuing to "choke their cars to death," this winter, says Bernard N. Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor club. The choke is a vital ajunct to the use of the motor car in winter, but unless properly used, it is capable of inflicting serious damage to the finest units of the engine mechanism, Mr. Hanlon declared.

"The function of the choke is to cut off air at the carburator," says Mr. Hanlon, "and thus to enrich the gasoline mixture for cold weather starting. The instant the engine has fired, the choke should be pushed in. If it is not, raw gasoline will gather in the combustion chamber of the cylinders and seep down the walls into the crank case, where it will mix with the lubricating oil. Diluting this oil, it robs it of the body that is necessary if it is to carry out its duty of keeping the moving surfaces apart. As long as this diluted oil is allowed to remain in the crank case, the motorist may be certain that bearings, cylinder walls, piston pins, and other vital units, are wearing down.

"Sparing the choke is the only way to stop dilution. Never allow it to remain out an instant longer than is necessary to get the engine started and to keep it running when it shows signs of stalling. Service men say that they find literally thousands of cases where this precaution has not been taken."

Some men are so honest their arms never steal around a girl.

Wanted! 25,000 Sufferers from DEAFNESS

Head Noises from Ear Tubal Catarrh—or Nasal Catarrh Only

Startling Free Offer!

This announcement is being published in order to secure the names of 25,000 people who are suffering from catarrhal deafness, dullness of hearing, head noises or ordinary nasal catarrh. To everyone so afflicted, a wonderful trial treatment, originated by Dr. W. O. Coffee, for many years a nationally known specialist, will be sent to try without obligation or expense.

Dr. Coffee, himself, suffered for many years from ear tubal catarrh, deafness and head noises. He tried many different treatments which failed to give permanent relief. Then he began experimenting on himself and finally developed a method which completely healed his ear tubal catarrh, restored his hearing and stopped the distressing head noises.

You can test this remarkable treatment, originated by the doctor and since then used with such astounding success by thousands of people afflicted with these troubles. Coupon brings free trial without the slightest cost. Mail it today. You incur no obligation whatever.

W. O. COFFEE, M. D.
Originator of This Home Treatment

Don't Neglect These Troubles!

Deafness, Ear Tubal Catarrh, Head Noises, and Nasal Catarrh generally grow worse when neglected. Authorities claim that ninety per cent of all deafness is primarily caused by catarrh of the head and air passages. Others state that nasal catarrh often causes indigestion, rheumatism, catarrh of the stomach, and many other diseased conditions. If you suffer from dullness of hearing or nasal catarrh, do not neglect this condition.

There are thousands, who are now practically stone deaf, whose hearing could no doubt have been saved had the right measures been taken in time. Dr. Coffee restored hearing in hundreds of cases, where the patients were so deaf they could hear nothing. Of course, those were cases which, in spite of their severity, fortunately had not advanced to the stage that the actual tissues or nerves had become affected. Just remember this—you can prove the value of this treatment entirely without risk or expense. It will come to you absolutely free. Just fill out and mail the coupon.

FREE

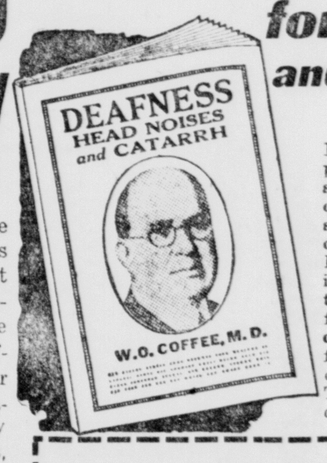

25,000 Trial Treatments Given This Month

Naturally, the doctor was proud of the results reported by so many thousands of sufferers who have used his simple home treatment. It is because of this success that these 25,000 demonstration treatments are being prepared and sent absolutely free to all who answer this offer within the next 30 days. This liberal plan should convince you that Dr. Coffee's Original Home Treatment will give you relief from catarrhal deafness, dullness of hearing, head noises and also nasal catarrh. The results are quick and convincing. You feel the difference the first day. Try it. This treatment costs you nothing whatever. Simply send coupon or write and say you are suffering from deafness or head noises or catarrh. You will receive a free treatment which Dr. Coffee always claimed was the best treatment he ever found in his 45 years' practice as a specialist. Every sufferer should take advantage of this offer. The demonstration treatment is FREE.

DONT SEND ONE PENNY

You are not asked to send one penny for this treatment. It is sent free to you prepaid without cost. This is done to quickly introduce Dr. Coffee's original home treatment to sufferers from deafness, or head noises caused by ear tubal catarrh, or from nasal catarrh itself. Dr. Coffee probably treated more cases of deafness, head noises and catarrh than any physician in the United States. He considered this treatment the best he ever found in over 45 years active practice. The fact that it cleared his own case and restored his hearing to normal, after the condition had grown really acute, gave him absolute confidence in it. Then, too, he witnessed what it has done for hundreds of sufferers. Send your name and address today. State whether you have catarrhal deafness or head noises or just have catarrh. This notice may not appear again so mail the coupon at once.

Mail Coupon Today for This Book and Treatment

You will be keenly interested in Dr. Coffee's Book on Deafness. In plain, simple language it describes the symptoms of the many various types of deafness. From reading it, you should be able to determine something of the nature of your own trouble. Bear in mind, Dr. Coffee's treatment is not recommended for those who are totally deaf from disease of any kind, from shock, or, in fact, from any cause whatever. In fact, this book frankly states so. Mail coupon today and get the Free Book and Treatment without obligation or cost. Offer is limited—Act!

Hundreds Praise this Original Method

Deaf Since Childhood: Her Hearing Greatly Benefited This Way

Mona McBride

Here is a recent picture of Mrs. Mona McBride, an Illinois woman whose remarkable case and glowing testimonial letter show what this treatment can accomplish. From childhood, Mrs. McBride's hearing was affected, the result of serious illness. Her story is the most convincing proof of the merits of Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment. Mrs. McBride says: "This is to certify that since having scarlet fever when a little girl, I have been hard of hearing, and for the past four or five years I have been almost entirely deaf. A few months ago my left ear began to discharge. I found it to be abscessed and discharging a foul fluid. Nothing seemed to stop it and finally I tried Dr. Coffee's Treatment. To my surprise and delight the hearing in the ear which was partially deaf for nearly 20 years has returned and the abscess has healed. Now I can hear a conversation six feet away. I didn't believe it possible and I certainly advise anyone suffering with deafness to try this treatment. I obtained relief in a short time."

An Octogenarian's Praise

At eighty years of age, D. B. Simmons, of Maine, ascribed partial deafness with which he was afflicted to his advanced years. Developing severe head noises, however, he determined to seek relief from the Dr. Coffee Treatment, the success of which he had heard in similar cases to his own. "I am glad to be able to tell you," he writes, "that after using your treatment as prescribed, the head noises left me entirely and I am rid of the deafness besides. Can hear well again."

Greatly Benefited at 86

"I had suffered with nasal catarrh for seven or eight years; I had terrible head noises, my hearing was bad. It was necessary for people to talk loud, otherwise I could not hear them. I used Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment for four months, and it restored my hearing to such an extent that I can now take part in an ordinary conversation. The head noises are a thing of the past. I am 86 years old."

J. C. Patterson, Indiana.

Head Noises Disappear

With Mrs. Reed Page, of N. Y., Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment quickly relieved a serious and rapidly developing case of deafness and head noises. From normal hearing, in scarcely four years, Mrs. Page became quite deaf. People had to shout close to her ears for her to understand them. Now she writes, "I am happy to tell you how good I feel and how much improved I am. Can hear everything, and the head noises are gone entirely."

After 10 Years' Suffering

"My hearing is now even better than when I was a boy," writes Peter Storm of Iowa. Gradually but surely growing deaf over a period of nearly ten years, Mr. Storm became afflicted with severe head noises which alarmed him greatly. Much to his amazement and when he had practically given up hope of regaining his hearing, Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment relieved him within two months.

Relieved After 48 Years

"I had been gradually growing deaf for 48 years. I had not been able to hear over a telephone for 17 years. Naturally I was discouraged for I had tried everything and found no relief. Dr. Coffee's treatment restored my hearing so I could hear over a telephone in either ear, quite plainly. I no longer suffer with intense headnoises."

Mrs. M. Sherier, Missouri.

Restored Hearing in Month

George Bishop, a native of Saskatchewan, tells how he suffered for 12 years and spent hundreds of dollars seeking relief to no avail. Read what he says of Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment—how his hearing has improved and the head noises disappeared as a result of this simple method: "My hearing grew so bad that people had to shout into my ear for me to understand. Dr. Coffee's Treatment helped me greatly in one month. It is wonderful."

Chamberlin And Williams Forced To Quit Flight

Faulty-Fuel Pump Causes Endurance Test To Be Abandoned, May Try Again Today

(International News Service)

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The Bellanca monoplane in which Clarence D. Chamberlin and Roger T. Williams made an unsuccessful attempt yesterday to break the world's record for sustained flight, was taken to the runway at Roosevelt Field early today and work was started on placing fuel aboard for a second effort this morning. The faulty fuel pump which forced the flyers to descend yesterday afternoon had been replaced.

Before Williams and Chamberlin retired they conferred with George A. Wies, who plans to start a duration flight tomorrow with Louis Salomon as his co-pilot, and evolved a plan to avoid any danger that the two planes might interfere with each other if in the air together at night.

Chamberlin and Williams attempted to take off at dawn this morning, but were forced to postpone the start for a few hours when it was discovered that the dump valve of the main tank had sprung a leak.

To repair this trouble by replacing a new dump valve it was necessary to dump 150 gallons of gasoline.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyance which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

"Did you ever see such weather in January?" is the common salutation these days, as the weather has again reached an unusually mild condition. The zero weather of a week or so ago, is entirely forgotten.

There was some real New Castle enthusiasm let loose at the meeting of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce meeting at The Castleton last night. Two hundred New Castle men, with a vision for their city, and a belief in New Castle's future were there. And such city enthusiasm means something to New Castle in the immediate future. There were optimistic predictions at the meeting that foretell of better things coming for this Shenango Valley metropolis, tin plate centre of the world.

Lest you did not catch a glimpse of this paragraph in the "Way of the World" column in The News last night, a column syndicated in many papers in the United States, and in view of the approach of the eighth anniversary of the coming of prohibition in America, gives a viewpoint of a nation wide observer. It follows:

> In a comparatively few years we shall have produced several generations of men and women in this country who have never seen a saloon. Whatever the drinking habits of the nation now, the fact remains that the prohibition amendment has done away with the open saloon. If nothing else were achieved, that alone would rank as one of the major achievements of the ages.

New Castle Women's Federated Club organization has suggested that an art gallery be inaugurated in the corridors of one of New Castle's Junior high schools. This suggestion sounds good to Pa Newc. We know of no place where such a gallery would be of greater advantage than right in the public school.

Copies of the advance program issued for the Outdoor Advertisers convention, to be held in this city on January 23 and 24, as issued by the local committee, has just reached Pa Newc's desk. It is a fine example of state wide boosting of New Castle. The local organization, which is headed by Max Ludwig, is doing a nice piece of work in behalf of New Castle in this effort.

North hill folks had a peculiar experience last night. Just at the supper hour, the electric lights went dim and for a few minutes stayed that way, then went out. As related elsewhere, the trouble was caused by a fuse burning out on one of the lines. The trouble was remedied within a few minutes, but candles and all kinds of improvised lights were quickly brought into use in many of the homes.

SUNDAY SERVICES

The regular Sabbath services of the Beth Shalom congregation will be held Friday evening at 8:15. A. Grouowitz will deliver the sermon on "The Jew-Peace."

Mid-Year Publication Being Prepared By Senior High Editors

Members of the staff of the Ne-Ca-Hi, student annual at the Senior High school, are toiling these days to bring to completion the work of sending the book to press, started some time ago.

The photographer has been busy for the past few days snapping various groups at the school. These have been mailed for the necessary engraving work and are expected back soon. Practically every article for the publication has been placed in the hands of the printer, and as soon as the engraved cuts are received work of printing the book will commence.

Bruce Ewing, as editor-in-chief of this year's book, has for his assistants Virginia Reeher and Dorothy Jean Wallace. Louis Brown is business manager, while Mary Elizabeth Shannon and Jean Young act as Louis' lieutenants, Mary serving as circulation manager and Jean as advertising manager.

Miss Frances McClaren, head of the English department at the school, with Miss Verna Allison and Norman P. Nelson, comprise the faculty advisors.

The annual will likely appear for the first time on class night, for which the exact date has not yet been announced.

Bride-To-Be Runs Away With Coin

Star Junction Man Gypped Out Of $1,100 By His Supposed Bride-To-Be

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—Joseph Katnoski of Star Junction, Fayette county, agrees with an assertion made yesterday by his bride-to-be, Pittsburgh is a wicked city.

Joe came to Pittsburgh yesterday with Wanda Stanko, 25, whom he met two weeks ago, ostensibly to get married. As they approached the city, Wanda suggested that Joe let her carry his bank roll of $1,100 as "Pittsburgh is a wicked city."

Joe turned his money over to the bride-elect, and she suggested he go to a barber shop to "doll up".

Seven hours after he had left the barber shop, Joe still was looking for his Wanda.

Reserve Officers Have Meeting Here

Major C. E. Imbrie Is Elected As President For Ensuing Year

MAJOR HORSFALL MAKES ADDRESS

At one of the most interesting dinner meetings yet held by the Shenango valley chapter, Reserve Officers Association of the United States, which was held last evening at the Elks Club, Major C. E. Imbrie of Butler, Pa., member of the medical reserve corps, was elected president of the chapter for the ensuing year.

Other officers elected were as follows: first vice president, John D. Kennedy, New Castle, finance reserve; second vice president, Major George C. Dale, Mercer county, dental reserve; third vice president, Lieutenant Clare R. Sowash, Beaver county, quartermaster's reserve; secretary, George J. Kuech, New Castle, quartermaster's reserve; treasurer, Captain F. W. Wood, F. A., New Castle.

The feature of the evening was the illustrated talk on China by Major Lloyd P. Horsfall, coast artillery corps and instructor in military science and tactics at the University of Pittsburgh. His address was most interesting and greatly appreciated.

Following the dinner Captain W. Fulton Jackson, president of the chapter during the past year, assumed charge and called for the election of officers, which resulted as already previously announced.

Captain M. L. Craig, in charge of C. M. T. C. activities in this and surrounding counties, was called upon and explained that he was conducting special school sessions on the first Thursday of each month and invited the officers present to take advantage of them.

After Major Imbrie assumed his duties as president he called for a discussion of the problem of a regular time for a meeting each month. After considerable discussion it was finally decided that the first Wednesday of each month should be the time for the holding of the monthly meetings of the chapter.

Major Horsfall, the speaker of the evening, was then called upon and gave his very interesting talk on China. He explained in detail the difficulties of the Chinese written and spoken language.

He explained that the Chinese are confined in densely populated districts and have failed to assume an important place among the races of the world because of four things: poverty, family ties, lack of transportation facilities and lack of protection from bandits in the thinly populated districts.

He said that after spending many years in China that he had returned with a deeper appreciation of his rights as an American citizen.

He said that the Chinese have two peculiarities that have also kept them from advancing, namely, the levying of what might be termed graft in making any kind of a transaction and the desire to be a good fellow and avoid trouble, even to the point of entering into a compromise when what might be termed a principle of their life was involved.

Present internal strife, he said, was due to the lack of any conception of patroitism or love of country and the lack of leaders. Such leaders as they may have are distrusted, because of the known tendency of the Chinese to, literally speaking, feather their own nest at the expense of others. They make good soldiers, because they love a master, or one who will accept the responsibilities of life and their actions, he said.

At the conclusion of the address, which was illustrated, he was accorded a rising vote of thanks.

Members of the chapter in attendance were: Captain M. L. Craig, F. A.; Lieutenant C. B. Book, Q. M. C.; Lieutenant W G. Fleming, infantry; Lieutenant W. H. Thomas, air corps; Lieutenant John D. Kennedy, finance corps; Lieutenant Frank Attinger, M. A.; Lieutenant H. S. Gold, dental reserve; Lieutenant C. R. Sowash, Q. M. C.; Major G. C. Dale, dental reserve; Lieutenant M. S. Reswick, chemical warfare; Lieutenant L. C. Barnhart, signal corps; Major J. R. Cooper, medical corps; Lieutenant R. C. Hassler, finance corps; Major C. E. Imbrie, medical corps; Captain F. W. Wood, F. A. C.; Lieutenant A. A. Smith, infantry corps; Lieutenant R. M. Strickler, infantry corps; Major W. W. Golden, ordnance; Captain W. F. Jackson, dental corps; Lieutenant G. J. Kuech, Q. M. C.; Captain P. K. McGill, engineer corps.

Youthful Slayer Sentenced To Die

(International News Service)

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 12. — Eighteen-year-old Herbert Gleason, known as "The Baby Bandit" came to superior criminal court Wednesday to be sentenced by Judge David F. Dillion to death in the electric chair. Young Gleason, a slim, dapper lad, was the youngest defendant in the history of the state ever to receive the death penalty.

Gleason was accused of the killing of Frank McGonagle, grocery store proprietor of Medford, on December 1, 1926, during a holdup in order, Gleason said, to get money to take his "girl friends" to dances.

DYSKINESIA

Dyskinesia or habitual constipation wrecks more health every day than any other single thing. It saps strength and vitality, causes serious diseases of the stomach, kidneys and heart, brings on high blood pressure and makes you old years before your time.

The insidious condition of Dyskinesia is the result of our abnormal habits of living which place too great a strain upon the vital organs, especially the liver. The liver becoming weak or sluggish fails to supply the bowels enough bile. The bowels "tie up" and the poisonous waste retained affects the whole system including the vital organs.

The liver occasionally needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as medical men now know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning, so essential to internal cleanliness and health. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and a few soon tell.

QUART OF WATER CLEANS KIDNEYS

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications.

GORDON SPEAKS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Australian Discusses Prohibition At Chapel Exercises Wednesday

Clifford Gordon of Melbourne, Australia, who has been delivering talks in this locality for several days under the auspices of the Women's Club of this city spoke to the students of the Senior High school yesterday.

In his talk Mr. Gordon told his audience about the problems facing Australia today and pointed out many particulars in regard to the history and geography of that country, which is now a democracy.

He also stated that the 18th amendment of our own constitution is the will of the people and lawful, and after relating the development of the amendment said that if every person would set Jesus Christ as his example of noble living, every person would be an honorable citizen and in the end our country would be better.

Mr. Gordon's talk was thoroughly enjoyed by the students, numbering over 1,200.

LUNGS BAD NOW GAINING

J. E. Lawrence, 812 Johnson Street, Danville, Illinois, is a grateful user of Murrmann's Compound the wonderful new lung remedy that contains no alcohol or narcotic drugs. Read his interesting letter:

"Last fall I was sent away for four months on account of my lungs. I gained in weight, but lungs did not seem to get any better, and last March something went wrong with my stomach. I began to lose weight, so I came home and got down in bed. After about a month I began taking Murrmann's Compound, have taken four or five bottles and since taking it have had my lungs examined by two doctors and found them in good shape. Not satisfied I have had them x-rayed and was told that my lungs were entirely well. I am gaining in weight. I weigh 150 pounds. I still take Murrmann's Compound and give it to my whole family. If you wish to know more, send stamped envelope to J. E. Lawrence, 812 Johnson St., Danville, Illinois."

If you have reason to believe your lungs are affected, do not delay. Get a bottle of Murrmann's Compound. At reliable druggists. If yours hasn't it he can quickly get it from the D. W. Price Company, Toledo, Ohio.

Standing makes back and legs ache

How ¾ of the workers in the Straus Silk Mills relieve tired muscles

"... It's as good a job as any mill worker could ask —nice people to work with, good pay, fair conditions—but a factory job anywhere is bound to be hard work."

ONLY the mill workers themselves know how legs and feet can ache and how lame backs can be after a long day walking up and down a spinning frame.

Something they must have to take the ache out—to relieve the stiffness and fatigue which might otherwise make it necessary for them to miss many a day's work.

The workers in the Straus Silk Mills in Trenton are a particularly fresh, wholesome-looking lot of women. And so we asked them what they do to prevent aching and strain from standing at a spinning frame all day.

From three-quarters of them came promptly the answer, "I never use anything but Sloan's."

Everywhere the leading remedy for muscular pain

Everywhere you go you hear the same story from people whose work brings a strain on their muscles.

Read the experience of this New York woman—

"I had such a backache I didn't know what to do. I used Sloan's Liniment, and in half an hour I was better. Now, when anyone has a pain, I say, 'Use Sloan's.'"

Another woman writes—

"The pain in my back was like a knife stab and it left me helpless. Sloan's Liniment was given me to ease the pain and I am now able to do all my own work."

Sloan's Liniment is scientific—absolutely reliable because it works by the quickest, surest method known to relieve pain. It stirs up the circulation—brings new blood right to the spot where the pain is, sweeps away the cause of the trouble.

You can get it in any drug store. A bottle that will last you a long time for 35 cents. Use it for—

Rheumatism Lame muscles
Sciatica Stiff neck
Lumbago Colds and
Neuralgia congestions
Sprains and bruises

A company doctor who cares for hundreds of workers every year says: "People whose work exposes them to strain or to damp and cold usually suffer from a good deal of muscular soreness. We find that Sloan's gives them quick, positive relief."

One of the workers in the Straus Silk Mills. ¾ of these workers said that after a long day on their feet they find Sloan's their best help for tired backs and legs

Gideons To Place Bibles In Hotel

Ceremony To Take Place Sunday Afternoon At The Castleton

One hundred and seventy-five Bibles, for the use of hotel guests, will be placed in the rooms of The Castleton following a special service held by the Gideons, the Christian Commercial Travelers' Association, Sunday afternoon, Jan. 15. The dedicatory service will be held in the Crystal ballroom.

The program, announces John L. Slack, manager of The Castleton, will be much the same as the one used when Bibles were placed in the rooms of the Benjamin Franklin hotel in Philadelphia, the Yorktowne at York and the White Swan at Uniontown.

All religious bodies, says Mr. Slack, have assigned the Gideons the work of placing Bibles in the commercial hotels of the world. An invitation is extended to every citizen of New Castle to attend the ceremony.

Goitre Not a Disease

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery

Milwaukee, Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 639, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. Citizens Erect New Highway As Gift To State

(International News Service)

AMES, Iowa, Jan. 12. — Alexander Coleman, of Hillboro, Iowa, is likened to Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer, by the state highway commission here, because like Ford he has donated a paved road to a state.

Ford, according to the highway commission, has contracted to build a road from the state primary highway in Massachusetts to his Wayside Inn, at Sudbury. The cost is to be $280,000, and upon completion of the project the road will be turned over to the state for $1.

Coleman, who has spent most of his life in mud road sections of southeastern Iowa is providing for a road ten miles long, in Lee and Henry counties. It is to be of concrete and is to cost $250,000. It will be an outright gift to the state road system.

COMMUNITY CHEST SURVEY

Report Of General Organizations Company As Made For Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson As Result Of Action Taken At Community Chest Fund Workers' Campaign—Being Published In Sections

Another installment of the report of the General Organization Company of Chicago, of the survey made of the Community Chest and other organizations receiving public support here, as submitted to Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, at whose expense the survey was made, is presented today.

In the survey, the idea was to investigate all of the agencies and make recommendations which might be for the betterment of the management of any or all of them. The News is presenting the facts in the survey as reported by the General Organization Company and submitted to the Chest board directors and the agencies, insofar as they concern the organizations.

Today's report deals with the Lawrence County Red Cross Chapter, and is as follows:

Lawrence County Pennsylvania Chapter of the American National Red Cross

We were informed that the charter of this organization is held by National Headquarters. The By-Laws contain the following provisions:

Name: Lawrence County Pennsylvania Chapter of the American National Red Cross.

Purpose: The purpose of this Chapter shall be to aid in carrying out the purpose of the American National Red Cross, in conformity with such policies and regulations as the Central Committee may from time to time determine.

Management: The governing body of the Chapter shall be an Executive Committee of 19 members, three of whom shall be ex-officio members, namely the Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

Meetings: The Executive Committee shall hold meetings once a month.

We find that the minute book shows only four meetings of the board of directors for the year ending October 31, 1927. Very few business matters were discussed at these meetings.

At the Community Chest meeting, in presenting budgets for the year 1927-1928 Miss Wilson gave her salary as $1,526.00 although she received $1,725.00 for the year ended October 31, 1927, and her regular salary is $138.00 a month or $1,656.00 a year. The nurse's salary was given as $1,800.00 of which $800.00 is to come from the county outside of New Castle.

The report to the National Headquarters for the month of December, 1926, shows a cash balance of $6,312.75, whereas the report to the Community Chest shows an overdraft of $511.43. This is due to the fact that the Red Cross has never reported their large cash balances to the Community Chest but have started each year without showing any cash balance and reported only the cash receipts and disbursements during the year.

The cash balances at June 30 for the past eight years were as follows:

1927	$5,477.60	1923	$15,066.63
1926	$7,316.96	1922	$17,817.56
1925	$5,562.54	1921	$21,145.74
1924	$9,146.75	1920	$27,555.02

The Red Cross has had a larger cash balance each year than the amount which was requested from the Community Chest. Liberty Bonds of $250.00 and a small bank balance at New Wilmington amounting to $262.44, has not been included in either of the two reports.

For the year ended October 31, 1927, the Red Cross received $4,707.19 from the Community Chest, $1,700.00 of which was given to the National Headquarters. In the special drive for funds for the Mississippi Flood Relief a total of $13,839.06 was collected and turned over to the National Headquarters. The amount received from membership was $585.50 of which $262.50 went to the National Headquarters. The Red Cross is primarily a membership organization, but the local branch has not held an annual roll call in the city of New Castle since it has been receiving funds from the Community Chest. The following figures show the amount received from $1.00 memberships and from the Community Chest for each of the past seven years:

	Memberships	Community Chest		Memberships	Community Chest
1921	$16,312.00	———	1925	$ 4,748.00	$1,000.00

Payments of $533.27 and $200.00 were made for the Mississippi Flood Relief from the general funds of the Chapter. We can not find where these amounts were authorized in the minute book but we were informed by the Secretary that they were approved at a regular meeting. The $200.00 referred to was taken from the New Wilmington account and is included in the amount of $13,839.06 remitted to National Headquarters.

It is apparent that either the minute book does not reflect the business transacted or unusual expenditures are made without the approval of the board of directors. We were informed that on some transactions it was the policy of the Secretary to go to a few of the directors and get their approval.

Payments of $120.00 and $66.00 were made to the New Castle and Shenango Valley Hospitals. We were informed that these amounts were paid to the hospitals because it was the wish of the Red Cross that certain charity patients be placed in private rooms rather than wards.

Civilian Relief for the year amounted to $774.85 of which $635.42 went to seven families.

The nurse is doing excellent work in the community. A good deal of bedside nursing is now being done. Considerable work is being done in the schools such as inspecting children and weighing them.

It is our opinion that the activities of the local branch of the Red Cross should be taken over by some other charitable organization in New Castle. In order that the national organization shall receive full support from the community a volunteer organization should be established and a fixed amount paid to the National Headquarters from the Community Chest. We believe all charitable nursing activities of Lawrence County should eventually be consolidated under the supervision of one of the hospitals.

Charter Obligations of the American National Red Cross

The purposes of this corporation are and shall be: To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war . . . .

To perform all the duties devolved upon a national society by each nation which has acceded to said treaty (the treaty of Geneva) . . . . . .

To act in matters of voluntary relief and in accord with the naval and military authorities as a medium of communication between the people of the United States of America and their Army and Navy . . . . . .

To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other great national calamities, and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same.

—From the Congressional Charter of the American National Red Cross. Approved January 5, 1905.

In considering this great National Agency, which is interested in these of peace, primarily in carrying on a system of national and international relief in event of calamity or disaster, it is essential that we examine carefully the scope of work being done and determine which functions properly belong to us—the community, and that which is national in character.

It is realized at the outset that sketchy resume of the national activities of the Red Cross will not enable us to treat the subject adequately. This national service is of tremendous importance and of outstanding value. We believe all will agree that the national Red Cross work should be maintained and encouraged and should receive adequate financial support. However, many citizens of New Castle question the need and value of the service as rendered by the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross.

The American National Red Cross, as a national institution, stands before the American people charged by the Government with the responsibility of fulfilling certain national and international obligations. The Red Cross is at once an agency carrying a mandate from the Government and an agency of the people giving expression to their humanitarian impulses to help the less fortunate.

From a national point of view, the Red Cross is successfully and carefully managed, and it is accepted by those who are in a position to know that whatever money may be given to it will be judiciously expended.

It is headed in its executive department by Judge John Barton Payne, former Secretary of the Interior. He was appointed to this position by President Harding and, regardless of political views or affiliation, all know of his devotion and genius.

When Judge Payne was appointed by President Harding he agreed to accept the appointment under the condition that he was to work without salary and he was to pay his own expenses. Naturally, this condition was compiled with and he now devotes all of his time to this task entirely without compensation.

The charter of the American National Red Cross requires that it shall carry on a system of relief in mitigating suffering caused by such calamities as floods, tornadoes and earthquakes. It also has an established program of devising and carrying on measures for preventing avoidable illness and suffering by teaching the principles of healthful living.

During the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1927, many demands were made upon the Red Cross in disaster; in fact, it has been almost continuous. It adminstered relief in 91 disasters in the United States of major or minor importance, besides rendering assistance in 20 disasters in our insular possessions and in foreign countries, a total of 111 disaster operations for the year.

In two disasters alone out of the 91 in the United States, the Red Cross cared for approximately 650,000 people. In these two disasters—the Florida hurricane and the Mississippi Valley Flood—the people of this and other countries provided more than twenty million dollars which was handled by the Red Cross.

The Red Cross has not only met its responsibilities in the field of disaster, but has also continued to carry out its obligations to the disabled veterans of the World War and to the men now in service with the naval and military forces. The Red Cross deems the service rendered to service and former service men and families of prime importance.

The activities of the National Red Cross are well known; therefore, we will not take the time to go into a detailed discussion of same. Its national program is well defined under the general headings of war activities, civilian relief, health education and junior work. Its balance sheet is favorable and each of its services has shown growth in method and action.

Local Chapter

The work of the local chapter is a different matter. The community has learned to turn critical eyes upon the character and value of work being done. The New Castle public does not feel satisfied that the money contributed to the Lawrence County Chapter is being spent in such a way as to secure the maximum value in service. The consensus of opinion is that the work now being undertaken by the local chapter can very properly be handled by some other existing agency.

Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, reports the following program of accomplishments for the past year:

176 Bedside nursing visits made
456 School children examined
1806 School children weighed
478 School children found defective
101 School children with corrected defects
398 Defects reported to parents
7 Pairs of glasses furnished
21 Tonsilectomies furnished
12 Dental work cases furnished
Home service or civilian relief
600 Office interviews
119 New and reopened cases handled
300 Visits made in behalf of cases
Pneumonia jackets and sterile dressings furnished by production department.

Some of the questions raised:—Is the work as mentioned above distinctly Red Cross in character? Is not some of the work mentioned above the function of some other agency; for example, the work of the School authorities? Is the service rendered and relief given sufficient to justify a budget request of $6,000.00? Ought not the Red Cross be supported by the community to a reasonable extent as a great National Agency and the local chapter be put on a skeleton basis and the work taken over or merged with some other agency? These and many other questions arise for different reasons. It may be that the community has only a nebulous idea of what the Red Cross is all about. Or it may be a question of leadership.

Just what does the local chapter face today in the matter of public sentiment towards the Red Cross? To what extent is there public knowledge of what the Red Cross is and stands for? These, of course, are vital questions. The local chapter will have to analyze its own problems in this respect. We believe the rapid decline in income received from the one-dollar memberships, $16,312 in 1921 to approximately $520.00 this last year, is significant.

Our conviction is that the nursing activities of the Red Cross and civilian relief should be merged with the Associated Charities. The American Legion has been doing splendid work along the lines of civilian relief (ex-soldier), but it should be kept in mind that the Legion work is purely voluntary on the part of some of its members, as the Legion has no paid employees. This work has in the past been handled under the direction of Mr. P. J. Dempsey, and his service has been particularly noteworthy in this connection.

RECOMMENDATION:

(a) Financial support should be given to the Red Cross as a National Agency. Our personal opinion is that this amount should not exceed $1,000.00 annually.

(b) Relief activities of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross be merged with the Associated Charities.

(c) Additional study be given as to the need of the nursing service. It may develop after critical analysis that this service can be dispensed with for the present. Miss Hite, Red Cross Nurse, is competent and well qualified; however, she devotes the greater part of her time as a visiting nurse for which a small fee is charged for her service. If the service of the additional nurse seems necessary, we feel that this activity should also be merged with the Associated Charities.

(d) The local chapter should be organized on a strict volunteer basis. Under the leadership of Mr. Walter Braham, this could undoubtedly be accomplished very easily, as Mr. Braham enjoys the confidence of the community, and interested citizens will be willing to follow his lead in this matter.

(e) Adequate financial support should be given the Associated Charities to enable them to properly carry on the suggested program.

(f) If the above recommendations are carried out, the Red Cross will participate financially in the Community Chest only to the extent of the amount decided upon for National Red Cross support.

North Hill District Lights Are Effected

Transformer Fuse Burns Out And Cause Few Minutes Inconvenience

Residents of the North Hill district, north of Park avenue, using electric current for lights and other purposes, experienced several minutes of darkness about six o'clock last night, when a fuse at the transformer station, at the junction of the Pulaski and Wilmington roads burned out.

When the trouble originated, the users of electricity in that district of the city noticed a flickering and dimness of the lights and finally everything went out. The period that all current was shut off was while a new fuse was being installed in the transformer.

While the trouble was in progress, the Pennsylvania Power Company received hundreds of calls asking what was the matter.

Old Newspaper Tells Of Lincoln's Death

Copy Printed In 1865 To Be Exhibited In Lobby Before Play Tonight

A copy of the first page of the New York Herald extra of the morning of April 15, 1865, the morning after the assassination of Abraham Lincoln which gives a full account of the tragedy has been obtained from Mrs. William Zehner and will be framed and hung in the lobby of the Scottish Rite Cathedral tonight so that students and others may see it before the play "Abraham Lincoln" which is being presented there this evening.

Mrs. Zehner, mother of Miss Isabelle Zehner, a teacher in the Senior High school, has preserved this page of the newspaper for all these years and it is now in fine condition. It contains a cut of the assassinated president and full details of the tragedy as well as items concerning the activities of Jeff. Davis and the rebel army. An editorial concerning the assasination is also found on the second page, as well as a news account of Sherman's March to the Sea.

This relic is considered of very great historical value and interest by LaVerne Irvine, Director of Music in the Senior High school who is having the copy framed, and many people will want to see and read at least a part of the account.

Woman, 32 Eats Only Baby Food 3 Years

"I didn't eat a square meal in years. Even when I ate only the lightest kind of food, I would be miserable with stomach gas. And for 3 years I lived on nothing but baby food. Pills and medicine didn't do any good. But, two months ago I began to take Adlerika. Now I eat almost everything and feel just fine. My friends hardly know me any more. I am looking so much better. I sleep good and now, at 32, I enjoy life again, thanks to Adlerika."—Mrs. M. Gunn.

Quick Action Surprises

As gently and naturally as taking a drink of water, Adlerika acts upon BOTH upper and lower bowels, bringing quick relief from gas bloating, intestinal stasis and chronic constipation.

The very FIRST dose of Adlerika often brings out astonishing amounts of old waste matter from the intestinal canal. This poisonous matter may have been in the intestines a long time, causing gas, headache, sleeplessness and many other symptoms. A treatment of just a FEW weeks with Adlerika often brings great permanent improvement in cases of so-called stomach trouble.

What Doctors Say

Dr. H. Louis Shoub, New York, states: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing action, tends to check the growth of intestinal bacteria."

Dr. A. J. Lancaster, a physician of over a quarter century's experience, says: "In the treatment of gastro-intestinal disorders, Adlerika has no equal."

J. E. Puckett, writes: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated from my system."

Dr. Carl Weschcke, graduate of Heidelberg University, Germany, first perfected Adlerika. It is a compound of the best saline intestinal cleanser known to science with glycerine, buckthorn, cascara and other gas-expelling and detergent elements.

Many physicians recognize Adlerika as the one dependable remedy for gas, intestinal stasis and chronic constipation. Unlike most medicines it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel.

Even if your bowels move every day, Adlerika may bring out poisonous, gas-forming matter which you would never believe was in your system.

No matter what you have tried for the bowels and stomach, Adlerika will surprise you.

Civilian Probe Into Sub Crash Given Approval

Senate Naval Affairs Committee Approves Coolidge Recommendation

STRAIGHT PARTY DIVISION INCURRED

Democratic Members Of Committee Vote For Senatorial Investigation

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—An investigation of the S-4 submarine disaster by a civilian commission of experts, as recommended by President Coolidge was approved today by the senate naval affairs committee by the margin of a single vote on a straight party division.

The committee favorably reported the house resolution, authorizing the civilian inquiry, after rejecting a Democratic substitute for a senatorial investigation of the disaster. The vote on both proposals was 9 to 8, all Republicans, including insurgents, voting for the civilian inquiry, while all the Democrats voted for the senatorial investigation.

Asheville Husband Charges Wife With Kidnaping Children

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Margaret M. Bryant, Asheville, N. C., central figure in a sensational $10,000 alienation suit started by her husband, who charged his wife with visiting in this city with a wealthy Asheville youth, will get a hearing today charged with "kidnaping" her two children from North Carolina.

Mrs. Bryant is charged with taking the children from the juvenile boarding home at Asheville, N. C., on July 14. After a search of several weeks, Mrs. Bryant was found living at the home of her aunt in west Philadelphia with the two children.

Bryant filed suit last summer for $100,000 against Henry Westall of Asheville, charging him with alienating his wife's affections.

Houston Puts In Convention Bid

Houston, Texas, Would Advance $200,000 For Democratic National Convention

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—"A new and determined bid for the Democratic national convention was put forward today by Houston, Texas, through Jesse Jones, treasurer of the national committee.

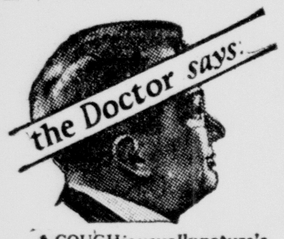

Jones announced he would submit a bid of $200,000, within $50,000 of the sum San Francisco has bid. Houston's offer made a distinct impression upon those committee members who regard San Francisco, the leading bidder, as too remote from the center of the nation.

Open Probe Into Disastrous Fire At Germantown, Pa.

Germantown Community Center Burns, Four Children Perish In Fire

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—An exhaustive investigation into the disastrous fire which razed the Germantown Community Centre in Germantown late yesterday resulting in the death of four children and injury to nearly a score of persons will be started today by city officials.

The victims were trapped on the third floor of the building when the stairway became a mass of flames.

Frances Perfamo, 10, was dead when carried from the structure while Mary Dema, 8, Jennie Pkopo 11, and Ida Visco 10, were burned so badly they succumbed in Germantown hospital today.

The injured are Sylvia Bressi, 8, Mary De Tomasco 10, Lieut. William Friday, ladderman Harry Brooks and Peter Maher, firemen who were overcome while endeavoring to rescue the 50 children trapped by the flames. The children are in a serious condition.

A number of others were treated for minor injuries while many were trampled underfoot in the panic to escape from the flaming building. Nearly 100 children were playing in the three story structure when the fire started.

It is believed an overheated stove caused the fire. Damage was estimated at $20,000.

State Department Denies Published Newspaper Yarns

South American Newspaper Say Ambassadors Instructed In Pan-American Views

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Charges published in South American newspapers that the United States representatives in various Latin-American capitals are endeavoring to extract a promise from each government that its delegation will not press the Nicaraguan question at the Havana Pan-American conference next week were categorically denied today by State Department officials.

The official view was expressed that the matter of instructions to the delegates is entirely a matter of self-determination by each government.

In this connection it was officially stated in behalf of Secretary Kellogg today that the United States regards the Nicaraguan question as exclusively a poltical problem, and one, therefore, not within the predetermined scope of the Havana agenda.

The program, he said, is necessary if America is to go into battle on even terms with an enemy.

"We do not have a first class navy now," Wilbur said.

DUAL EXECUTION DECISION UP TO WARDEN LAWES

Mrs. Ruth Snyder, which had been set for 11 o'clock tonight, was illegal and should be disregarded.

"I will render an official opinion about one o'clock this afternoon, but I feel now that the order was illegal and should be disregarded by Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing," Ottinger said.

Ottinger had just finished a telephone conversation with Governor Alfred E. Smith when he let it be known that he considered Justice Levy's order as illegal.

At the same time Ottinger broadly intimated that Governor Smith also felt that the order was illegal and that the execution of Mrs. Snyder and Gray should take place tonight.

The attorney general revealed that one of his New York City deputies was now on his way to see Justice Levy and ask him to vacate the order immediately.

"That is not necessary, but I asked that it be done as a matter of courtesy to Justice Levy," said Ottinger.

Cause for Order

Justice Levy's order was granted at the request of Mrs. Snyder's counsel, Attorney Edgar F. Hazelton on the ground that she was an important witness in a civil suit over the $95,000 life insurance which, it was alleged, Mrs. Snyder took out on the life of her husband, Albert Snyder, a few months before he was brutally murdered in his Queens county home.

Attorney General Ottinger pointed out, however, that should an opinion be handed down declaring Justice Levy's order illegal, there was nothing to prevent Warden Lawes from delaying the execution of both Mrs. Snyder and her former lover, Henry Judd Gray, until later in the week if he desired.

"I feel that procedure at the prison is entirely up to Warden Lawes, and if he desires he may delay the execution of Mrs. Snyder and Gray as late as Saturday night," said Ottinger.

Following a long conference with Claude T. Dawes, solicitor general in the attorney general's office, and several assistants, Attorney General Ottinger came to the conclusion that the order granted by Justice Levy was illegal and could be disregarded by Warden Lawes if the warden desired.

Will Follow State Attorney

SING SING PRISON, OSSINING, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Warden Lewis Lawes stated this afternoon to International News Service that if Attorney General Ottinger rules against the stay of execution of Ruth Snyder, signed last night by Justice Levy, the woman and her lover, Judd Gray, will die in the electric chair tonight. Lawes said that preparations for the execution were being carried on without delay.

Justice Levy's Attitude

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy, when informed in open court today that Attorney General Albert Ottinger had decided to request him to vacate his order of last night staying the execution of Ruth Snyder, indicated that he would not comply with the request.

"I don't care what Ottinger says," the justice remarked, and continued examining some papers on his desk. He would make no further comment.

The attorney general, in Albany, had indicated that if Justice Levy did not vacate the stay the execution could take place anyway, if the order was held illegal. He said he would not formally announce his decision, however, until Levy had been given an opportunity to act on his request.

Make Preparations

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Despite a court order staying the execution of Ruth Snyder, the authorities at Sing Sing prison went forward today with their preparations to electrocute her and her former sweetheart, Henry Judd Gray, at the originally set hour of 11 o'clock tonight.

Not until he is definitely told to do otherwise by state officials, whose advice he has sought, will Warden Lewis E. Lawes change the hour of the double execution.

In ordering Mrs. Snyder's execution stayed, Supreme Court Justice Aaron Levy directed Warden Lawes to show cause at 10 o'clock tomorrow why he should not produce the condemned woman as a witness in a suit involving the $95,000 of insurance on the life of her husband.

Up to Attorney General

"I have asked the advice of Attorney Albert Ottinger and Dr. Raymond F. C. Kieb, state commissioner of corrections," said Warden Lawes this morning. "If they agree that Justice Levy has a right to postpone the executions, then they will be postponed.

"If, however, Mr. Ottinger and Mr. Kieb rule that Justice Levy has no jurisdiction in this matter, then Mrs. Snyder and Gray will be electrocuted tonight."

Lawes further stated that if the executions are put off later than Saturday night the trial judge, Justice Townsend Scudder, will have to set a new date for the electrocutions. The original order specified that the condemned pair must be executed the week of January 9. The warden said that, in such an event, Justice Scudder would probably postpone the executions a month.

Say Procedure Not Valid

In some legal quarters it was contended that only an order from the presiding justice of any of the four parts of the appellate division of the supreme court could stay the execution. The state, it was suggested, might ask an appellate division justice to vacate the order signed by Justice Levy.

Apparently there is no precedent in New York state for court interference with the execution of a death sentence to insure the presence of the person in the trial of a civil action.

"Don't Want to Die"

Mrs. Snyder awoke shortly after nine o'clock after a fitful night's sleep. Before she went to bed last night she was in a highly nervous state and her eyes were red from weeping. She had said repeatedly: "I don't want to die—I'm too young to die. And I'm afraid they're going to kill me."

Something about the atmosphere of the inside of the prison caused the murderess to "sense" that there had been a favorable development, as far as she was concerned, and she seemed a little more cheerful.

Gray was his usual calm self. Quite serenely he ate a good breakfast and then turned to the reading of his Bible.

Matrons to Accompany

It has been tentatively decided that two matrons will walk beside Mrs. Snyder as she is led to the execution chamber tonight—if the electrocution is not definitely halted. The walk is about 160 feet.

Gray will be taken to one of the "last-minute" cells late today. From there it is only a few steps to the chamber of death.

There will be 10 guards and attendants in the execution chamber, in addition to Warden Lawes—four men to adjust the straps, two guards, the man who will give the death signal, an official timer and Robert Elliott, the tall, hollow-eyed executioner. The latter will pull the switch.

Twenty newspapermen, four physicians and the prison chaplains will also witness the execution.

Executioner Told To Be Ready

Elliott, the official executioner, telephoned to the prison this morning from his home in Richmond Hills, N. Y., and asked for instruction.

"Be ready," he was told.

A telegram was received at Sing Sing from "The Soul Mates' Union" of Washington, D. C., which read:

"Kindly let Mrs. Snyder and Gray have their last 24 hours together."

Mail came to Warden Lawes from all parts of the country. A number of telephone calls have been received at the prison, many from cranks, and others from religious persons who desire to offer consolation to the condemned couple.

Chamber of Commerce," said Mr. Pyle, "and I am glad that I see here the cream of the business men of the city.

"In the last eight months, some will say, the chamber has been inactive, but I want to state that this is not the case. The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce are paving the way to more activity in the near future, for activity there will be, I am sure.

"Again, may I welcome the ladies who do us the honor of attending this affair for, after all, a meeting is not complete without the ladies."

Engineer Speaks.

Following Mr. Pyle, Mr. Dickey introduced Ralph J. Ferris, engineer in charge of the Pymatuning dam project, who told the members of the chamber some of the facts relating to the project.

"In the beginning, the area now occupied by swamp land drained into Lake Erie. But in the glacial period, a new course had to be found, and so the course of the water was diverted to the Shenango river.

"At present, the area of the proposed dam consists of about 9,000 acres of swamp land, which is an old lake in the last stages of its existence. This swamp acts as a sponge and so there is little danger of flood in the Shenango valley.

"For more than a century surveys of this swamp, with the object of creating a dam, have been made. In 1868 a proposed drainage project fell through because the land does not slope enough for good drainage.

Covers 23,000 Acres.

"The site of the proposed dam covers 23,000 acres, 4,000 of which are in Ohio and 18,000 in Pennsylvania. So far, all the land which lies in Ohio has been acquired by the project, and 8,000 acres of the Pennsylvania land have also been purchased. Over 5,000 more acres are under option, and, after the last appropriation of $350,000 by the Pennsylvania legislature is spent, there will be yet 4,000 acres to acquire.

"In design, the dam will be ideal, located in a natural basin. The flow line has already been chosen, and it will be 1,008 feet above sea level. Provision has also been made for flood prevention. When completed, the dam will hold back some 74,000,000,000 gallons of water, and will be 28 square miles in area, or larger than Lake Chatauqua."

Fruit Tells History.

The history of the project was next discussed by the Hon. Fred T. Fruit of Sharon, who is secretary of the Beaver and Shenango Valleys Conservation association. Mr. Fruit declared that the modern history of the project went back some 25 years, when the loam surrounding the Pymatuning region was found to be excellent for the growing of onions. At this time the onion growers wanted to drain the swamp, and appealed to the state legislature for help. The cities paid no attention at all to the swamp, for it was believed that draught would be much better than floods. However, in a short time some of the more farsighted citizens began to grow alarmed as to the effects that the drainage project would have on the commercial water of both New Castle and Sharon.

Under the slogan of "Don't Drain the Swamp—Dam It!" the conservation association was formed.

Action is Started.

"In 1911," continued Mr. Fruit, "legislature passed a bill authorizing the dam and providing for a survey. And one of the greatest helps that our cause has had was the flood of 1913 and the ensuing property damage. After the flood, a visit by the appropriations committee of the legislature also helped in firmly establishing the conservation association. From time to time, legislature entertained bills in favor of the project, but the moneys assigned were reduced, or the bills were vetoed.

"Governor Brumbaugh, in 1917, passed a bill stating that money would be forthcoming from the state treasury if all the lands in Ohio, which would be affected by the dam, could be purchased and submerged. A corporation was formed and stock was bought by the Beaver and Shenango valleys water users. Although it was a great trouble to purchase the land in Ohio, it was finally accomplished."

Canal Opposes.

Mr. Fruit then went on to tell of the trouble which was encountered by the association through the opposition of a canal company, which wanted to divert the water into the Mahoning river. Although no definite decision has as yet been reached, yet it is almost positive that when the project is completed, the water will come down the Shenango valley.

The history of the project through the Pinchot administration was next discussed by Mr. Fruit. It was advocated at that time that the municipalities affected issue bonds, build the project, and in 30 years the state would repay the money. Because the cities could raise but $1,500,000, while the dam would cost $3,000,000, the offer was rejected.

Governor Interested.

"Governor Fisher is immensely interested in the project," concluded Mr. Fruit, "and he is especially anxious for its completion. At the last sitting of the legislature, Senator George T. Weingartner introduced a bill calling for $650,000, the amount required to purchase the remaining land, but this was reduced to $350,000, which is now being used in purchasing the remaining land.

"The dam when it is completed, should be state-owned and controlled but the cities which are to benefit should also contribute according to their ability and the good that the dam will do to them. Conferences will take place this spring and summer, and final plans will be worked out so they can be presented to the 1929 legislature. Co-operation is the only way in which the project can be put over and it is my firm belief that all of the residents of the Beaver and Shenango valleys should get behind the project and see that it does go over."

An ovation greeted the concluding remarks by Mr. Fruit which was redoubled when he greeted E. C. Brown through whose aid the land has been purchased.

At the conclusion of Mr. Fruit's address, Mr. Dickey again called E. C. Brown to the floor and requested him to make a few remarks on the Pymatuning. Mr. Brown recapitulated some of the history of the project and stated that never before had he felt as much optomism as to the final outcome as he does now.

State Head Speaks.

E. K. Morse, a member of the state water and power resource board, was also presented to the gathering.

"The work of the Chamber of Commerce" was the title of the address given by George E. Foss, general secretary of the State Chamber of Commerce which followed Mr. Fruit's speech.

Nearly every town or city of any size has a Chamber of Commerce, commented Mr. Foss although in some cases they are called Boards of Trade. There are now 26 State Chambers, the movement being started 25 years ago. And as we all know, there is a national chamber and a recently organized International Chamber.

The history of the Chamber of Commerce movement was next taken up by Mr. Foss. He told how they originated in seaboard towns as Boards of Trade, regulating shipping and how the movement spread inland. Although at first they were concerned entirely with merchandising, he traced the development of tehir activities into the industrial and civic sides of community life.

Programs for the local chamber were the next point in Mr. Foss' speech. Several ways of arriving at programs were illustrated, being an opportunist, the survey method and the suggestive method.

Do Not be Too Hasty.

"But after the program is selected the machinery must be there to put it through," Mr. Foss went on. "Committees must be selected impartially, merchants must be gotten to fall in line and pull together. And, along this line there is nothing better than a well established credit bureau such as you have here in New Castle.

"And as to industrial development we are now in the cycle which is seeking new industries and the desire for new things is rampant throughout the country. And the best advice that I can give is do not be too hasty. Care for the industries you already have and do not expect too much from outsiders.

"Industries always look at the civic life of a town before they come in, and so it is well for the chamber to include as many civic projects in its program as it can.

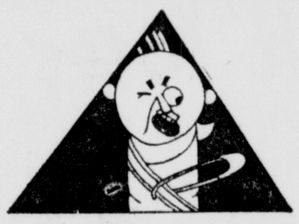

"Funds are needed to operate a Chamber of Commerce efficiently. The man power of the organization must be increased. Community mindedness must be extended over the city. The rate of progress of New Castle depends largely on the people who are here tonight, for they are the recognized doers of the city.

"And lastly, the chamber is worth while because of the effect that it has on the individual. It makes him work for the good of all and not just himself. Through the chamber you can make New Castle one of the best cities in the Union."

A riot of applause broke out as Mr. Foss resumed his seat. In rapid succesion Mr. Dickey introduced Louis B. Round who had charge of the entertainment, W. E. Matthew, secretary of the Sharon chamber; Fred Webster, secretary of the Beaver Valley chamber and L. G. McIntyre also of the Beaver Valley chamber; J. I. Porter, president of the Ellwood City chamber and N. F. eRaric, his secretary and W. W. Campbell, burgess of New Wilmington.

Before the meeting adjourned Mr. Dickey thanked the members of the chamber for the response to invitations, for the dinner and expressed his wish that the next meeting would be even "bigger and better."

The Pennsylvania-Ohio orchestra played throughout the meal. Five vocal numbers were sung by Miss Grace Straw, and Miss Emma Cook gave a reading.

STRONG PLEA FOR MINISTERIAL PENSION FUND

Dr. Elliott D. Burgess And Dr. G. W. Engler Make Strong Addresses On Project

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 12.—Before a packed auditorium of ministers and laymen from the West Conference at the Trinity Lutheran church Wednesday night, eloquent pleas for the Ministerial Pension Fund were made by Rev. Dr. Elliott D. Burgess, president of the Pittsburgh Synod, and Rev. Dr. G. W. Engler of the Bethany Lutheran church.

The meeting opened with a prayer by Rev. F. E. Stough of the Trinity Lutheran church of New Castle and was followed by an address by Dr. Engler. The topic of his talk was "The Task Golden" in other words, "The Ministerial Pension Campaign which is being waged by the Lutheran churches nation-wide for the purpose of raising four million dollars for a fund to pension ministers of their faith at the age of 65.

The high lights of Dr. Engler's remarks were: "The Task Golden is the ante-mortem appreciation of ministers of the Gospel, not the too-often post-mortem decoration. Many a light is recognized only when it has gone out—The veteran preacher should be assurred a life of ease in his old age, and such will be the case provided for in the Lutheran Ministerial Pension Fund—Is it not a burning shame that those who attend to our spiritual welfare are repaid so meanly in comparison to those who care for our physical well-being?—Plenty of preachers could conduct large business enterprises, if they so desired—The faithful minister works more hours to the day, bears more burdens, suffers more anguish than any other man."

Dr. Burgess then gave his views on the Ministerial Pension Fund project in no uncertain terms and explained his viewpoints from long association with the ministry. Said Dr. Burgess in part, "The Trinity Lutheran church never did a greater thing than when she voted to inaugurate this nation-wide campaign for the aged minister—the only criticism I have to make is that this project did not receive its due consideration soon enough.—Viewing the project from the ministers' standpoint the older pastors see above the details of this campaign the ever-ministering hand of God—If a minister is ordained at 25 and reaches the pension age of 65 he has served his office for 40 years and the pension is the least that we can do for him and a price cannot be placed on his services—Congregations, on the other hand, have a great deal to gain by their entire support of this Pension Fund campaign, and large dividends will be paid, for the pensioning of the old ministers will bring renewed strength to the hands of the young pastors and the slogan of the times 'A Greater Church Through a Greater Ministry' will be accomplished."

At the close of each address the robed choir of the local church sang anthems.

Secretary Bagger of the West Conference was then called upon to call the roll of congregations, asking the delegates and pastors to rise as their churches were called. Delegations responded from: Ambridge, Bathen Conway, Beaver Falls, Bridgewood, Ohio; Butler, Chicora, East Liverpool, Evans City, Freedom, New Castle, North Lima, North Washington, Rochester, Youngstown, Zelienople and Ellwood City.

The closing benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. J. Baker of the Ellwood City Trinity Lutheran church.

Report Activities At Neighborhood House Last Night

At the monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Neighborhood House on Sciota street Tuesday afternoon, reports of the work accomplished during the month of December were given.

Miss Christine Butler, superintendent in charge, reported 52 calls, 1031 books in library. One hundred and twenty-five boys and girls read books during the month.

One new class of music has been started, with six pupils. Mrs. John Paton is leader.

With the exception of one or two, all of the classes enjoyed a Christmas party during the holiday season. The High School Reserves entertained about 50 of the smaller girls and boys at an entertainment in the high school. Other classes, including the one taught by Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Woman's Bible class, English class, older girls' class and smaller classes, enjoyed parties.

The Sunday school, of which H. L. Cotton is superintendent, was given a treat and entertainment. Mary Koch and Magdalena Lucas assisted with the program.

Toys and gifts given by Miss Butler were donated by the Sorosis, the Reading Circle, Mrs. Robert Love and the First Presbyterian Bible school. Two of the classes were aided by the First Baptist Missionary Society and Epworth M. E. Missionary Society.

Fishing Licenses Now Being Issued

Fishing licenses for 1928 are now being issued by County Treasurer Adda M. Smiley. There are few fish that can be caught at this season of the year, except suckers, but quite a number of licenses have been issued. January 15th is the last day for securing dog licenses, but as the date falls on Sunday it is probable that licenses will be issued on Monday.

COUNTY DIRECTORS CONCLUDE TWO DAY CONVENTION HERE

Over 100 school directors of Lawrence county and the county commissioners were the guests of County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling at the luncheon served by the ladies of the Third United Presbyterian church on East Washington street.

After the luncheon a most pleasing entertainment was given by teachers and scholars of the county, the Union High School orchestra playing several selections. The program consisted of very clever take-off of Assistant Superintendent Charles F. Ball starting his Ford on a cold morning by Alf Asper, a teacher in the Wampum high school, a reading, "Kentucky Philisophy" by Miss Edna Neal teacher in the Shenango-Taylor school, a solo "I Am Waiting for my Ship to Come In" by Thomas Grittie of Union township school, a duet, "Mother's Prayer Follows Me," by Miss Phyllis Jane Stanford and Miss Edna Neal teachers in the Shenango-Taylor school.

Short addresses were given by Dr. Charles H. Albert of the Bloomsburg Teacher's college and D. E. Crowley, head of the business department of education at Harrisburg. Also the president of the Lawrence County School Directors association, W. H. Helle, gave several very pertinent remarks.

W. H. Helle was elected as the delegate to the state convention of school directors to be held in Harrisburg in February.

Urges County to Keep On.

Dr. Albert in his final address spoke briefly on "Making a Life" as the task of the schools of our country as compared with making a living. He said that he hoped Lawrence county would continue in their program of consolidation and better schools in the next ten years. He said it would cost money but he just heard of farmers paying $10,000 for a Guernsey bull and $3,000 for a Poland China hog and would anyone take $3,000 or $10,000 for any one of our sons and daughters. Then why should a group of farmers hesitate at $55,000 or more to furnish suitable equipment for making a life in their children.

Mr. Crosley gave several suggestions as to how the business of a school board should be conducted and invited any one to write him at Harrisburg and he would gladly help in any way he could.

Union High Orchestra.

The Union High School orchestra which furnished the music for the closing session received many congratulations from the speakers and directors and it was remarked that a fine program could be made by the children of the Lawrence county schools.

The orchestra was directed by Mrs. Aileen W. Stone, supervisor of music in the school. The other members of the orchestra are first violin, Francis Mrozek, Mike Cifra, Lynn White, Bill Birt, James Rhyal; second violin, Dorothy Kennedy, Dorothy Harry, Mary Shuster, Joe Boron, Mike Replowski, Gerald Morrison; saxophones, Joe Thompson, Kenneth Clark, Merel Crayton, Ellsworth Dewberry, Raymond Hammond; clarinets, Walter Keller, Robert Thompson; cornet, Trenton Eckles, Jimmie Hannon, drums, Gerald Ammons; piano, Walter Renekir and librarian, Ronold Horchler; trombones, Richard Wallace, Everett Wilcox.

Woman Reports Man Strikes Her

Report Is Made Of Woman Being Accosted On Arlington Avenue

As Miss Anna Vaughn, of 1513 Huron avenue, was walking south on Arlington avenue, near the curve at the intersection of Cunningham avenue, according to the report made to the police last night, an unknown man grabbed her, struck her a severe blow in the face and then ran into the nearby wooded district, best known as Cunningham Woods.

Officers Horner and Samuels were detailed on the case and made a thorough search of the district for the assailant of Miss Vaughn but could not locate him.

He was described as being about thirty-five years of age, smooth faced, five feet ten inches in height, and wearing rough clothes.

Arrest Negro For Attempt To Enter Smith Dining Car

About 2 o'clock this morning Mrs. H. A. Smith, who conducts a dining car on South Mercer street, called the police, stating there was trouble there.

Officers M. J. Young and Criswell answered the call and found that a negro had been attempting to force the front door of the car after the place had been closed.

According to the information given by Mrs. Smith, the negro insisted on being admitted and she told him "no". She then showed him a revolver and he replied that he didn't care for a gun as he had three of them.

Somewhat frightened, Mrs. Smith ran to the back of the car and screamed and this frightened the negro away. She gave a description of the negro and he was picked up by Lieutenant Harper and Officer M. J. Young and brought into the city police station.

He was in a drunken condition and when police court was held this morning his condition was such that Mayor Gillespie postponed the hearing until he sobered up. He faces a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct. The man arrested gave the name of George Thompson.

Over $12,000 Paid In County Fines

Liquor violators in Lawrence county added considerable to the county and state wealth in the year 1927, according to a statement made by Prothonotary Ralph M. Campbell. In the 12 months, approximately $9,200.00 was paid into the treasury of Lawrence county in fines and costs, and $3,150 from drunken drivers.

In the past year Judge R. L. Hildebrand featured the imprisonment of violators more than the fine, as against the reverse in other counties. As a result, the total of time spent in the workhouse would probably be high.

The $9200.00 paid goes into the treasury of the county. The $3150.00 for drunken drivers goes to the state. All fines are now collected through the office of Prothonotary Campbell.

Man Rescues Family Of Five, But Is Seriously Injured By Glass

(International News Service)

CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 12.—One man was seriously hurt and five others narrowly escaped being burned to death in a fire which destroyed the home of James Sullivan here today.

Heroism of Paul Behan, who dashed into the flame swept building and led Sullivan, his wife and three children to safety, averted loss of life.

Behan battered his way through a window to reach the trapped family, and suffered a severed artery, which caused him to collapse later from loss of blood.

Landslide Blocks Pennsylvania Tracks

Heavy Slide Of Rock And Earth Just Above West Side Station

A heavy landslide of rock and earth occurred yesterday just above the West Washington street bridge blocking traffic on the eastbound track for several hours.

The earth and rock released by the frost coming out during the past few days suddenly let loose and several tons of the side of the cut slid down upon the right of way and covered the track on the west of the cut under several feet of earth and rock.

The crews got to work at once but it was 5:30 o'clock before the tracks were entirely cleared. Traffic for the afternoon was routed over the one track which was cleared in a short time. Among the debris was a large rock several feet thick that was so heavy that in endeavoring to lift it the steel arm of the crane was broken.

Be happy today; it might be prohibited tomorrow.

Threatened Break On New York Team Averted By Trade

Passing Of Hornsby From Giants Causes General Stir In Baseball World

Believe Stoneham And McGraw Near Breaking Point Reason For Big Deal

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A twenty four hour inquiry, conducted on a thousand-mile front in six or eight of our principal cities, into the labarynth of details surrounding the Hornsby matter today seemed to have narrowed the explanations of that amazing business down to the following explanations:

That a threatened break between Charley Stoneham and John McGraw, which would have resulted in McGraw stepping out and Hornsby stepping in as manager of the Giants, had been averted and that, in consequence Hornsby had to take himself hence.

2. That Hornsby's dominating personality had resulted in dissension on the ball club and that McGraw had to trade him to restore harmony.

3. That Hornsby's admitted flair for gambling on the races had resulted in other players with the club becoming addicts and that too many of them were interested in what happened in the third race at Pimlico to do the club any particular good.

Of course, the backstairs loungers, inspired by the memory of what had gone before in baseball, immediately saw in Hornsby's passing to Boston a possible hint of something beneath the surface of the deal but, seemingly or at least as far as the eye could reach, all of the cards had been laid on the table. Last year, Hornsby wasn't wanted by a man for whom he just had won a world's championship. Today, he had been passed along by another who, previous to 1927, had spent the greater part of his declining years wishing that Hornsby was with his ball club.

He would seem to be the kind of man, therefore, who is wanted by everybody else except the gent who happens to have him.

Let us consider the so called threat of a break between the Giant owners that might have resulted in Hornsby becoming manager. The stand out consideration here involved the question of why Stoneham had to wait until this late date to quash a report that Hornsby was to take over the Giants. The report was in circulation during the greater part of last summer and, if Charley and John then were the little playmates they now profess to be, what would be more natural than that either or both should deny the Hornsby rumor at its inception?

That would have fixed everything, it seems to me, and the Giants still might have had their star hitter and field leader.

But if the alleged breach actually existed and now has been healed, what might the man most deeply concerned be expected to do? He would get hurriedly rid of the player whose existence threatened his status.

Color is lent to the theory of a threatened break by the fact that the Hornsby deal apparently was made in some haste. The Giants held up the news for some six hours in order to give Judge Fuchs time to return to Boston and receive three rousing cheers. If the boys hadn't been in a hurry, they would have recollected that the news could have been withheld long enough for Fuchs to get to Honolulu.

Tom Allen was defeated by Charley Gallagher in two rounds lasting three minutes for $2,000 and the championship of America, February 22, 1869, near St. Louis.

Robert Bonner paid $40,000 for Maude S. and was later offered $100,000 for the horse, but refused to sell. Bonner paid the same amount for his mare Pocahontas.

The mill between Billy Edwards and Arthur Chambers for the lightweight championship of America and $1,000 a side took place at Squirrel Island, Canada, September 4, 1872.

Enon High Loses To College Hill

(Special To The News)

ENON VALLEY, Jan. 12.—The local high school quintete met defeat on the community house floor last night at the hands of the College Hill, Jr. High team hailing from Beaver Falls.

The second quarter saw each team annex four points each in the early minutes of play. From that time on the visitors continued to add an occasional two marker tally with an occasional foul thrown in while they managed to hold the local boys scoreless except for the addition of a lone foul in the third period.

For the local outfit it would be a difficult matter to select an individual player who showed to an advantage over his team mates. Russell at guard and Lindner at forward did some excellent playing. Lineup and score as follows.

Enon High 5	College Hill, Jr. High 15
Lindner	F	McClain
Vonberg	F	Ward
Moore	C	Brest
Russell	G	B. Ward
Speerhas	G	Stengel

Field Goals—Lindner, Moore 1, McClain 4, Brest 2. Fouls—Enon Valley 1 out of 5, College Hill 3 out of 7.

Westminster got away to a good start in the Tri-State Conference, handing Geneva a 29 to 18 defeat in a basketball game at New Wilmington. Connor scored eight points, while Delahunty shot two goals from field and seven from the foul line. Rubenstein turned in seven points for the Covenanters.

A man who cannot accept orders should not be placed in a position to give orders is a rule of business that apparently is borne out in the transfer of Rogers Hornsby from the Giants to the Braves. Despite his record as a world's notable in baseball, he was only so much clay to the business end of baseball.

He led the Cardinals to the championship, whereupon he became embroiled with the Cards' president and was then sent to New York and a suit for recovery of money loaned for gaming on horses followed. He won the suit, and now comes forth the report that Hornsby found it easy to criticise fellow players, and orders issued to him seemed irksome.

So Rogers has been shifted to Boston, to a club that generally trails in the cellar. As a boss he will have Jack Slattery, who is as tough as they make 'em; a man who has handled tougher chaps than Hornsby, and having been shown that even a bulb can fall, it is hoped Rogers comes through.

Talkative Jack Sharkey, the man who tried to talk to the referee while Jack Dempsey directed a left, is coming to New York today to undergo a physical examination for his fight Friday night with Tom Heeney. Probabilities are they will find Jack in shape and he will try to beat Heeney and once again occupy attention as a topnotcher and join the list clamoring for a chance against Champ Tunney.

The writer is in no way connected with any fighter, manager or pugilistic venture, having adopted a nonparticipant's role more than a year ago. It was with relief that we sat through Tuesday night's proceedings and watched the pugilists flatten each other. However, as a boxing writer, we intend to chronicle the events as they happen, and a lot did happen Tuesday night.

Ernest Wolf Is Named Temple Team Manager

A New Castle boy has achieved enviable honors at Temple University, in Philadelphia.

He is Ernest C. Wolf, a native of this place, who has unanimously been elected manager of the Temple football team for the coming season.

Mr. Wolf's selection was announced by Earl R. Yoemans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, following a meeting of the Temple University Athletic Council recently. He had been associate manager of the team.

Mr. Wolf succeeds Rex Roberts in the management of the Owl grid organization. He is one of the original members of Temple football team, having played centre during the first season, 1925-26. He is a versatile athlete, has been a member of the Temple track team for the last three years, and has taken part in the Penn relays in the last two years.

Mr. Wolf, who is 22 years old, is one of the youngest football managers in Eastern collegiate circles. He was born in Abbottstown, Adams county, Pa., and is a graduate of the New Castle, Pa., High School, class of 1924. He is a student in the School of Commerce of Temple University.

Mr. Wolf began his executive college football career two years tgo, when he was named assistant manager of the Owl team under Cecil Miller. He is a member of Delta Sigma Pi fraternity. Mr. Wolf is enthusiastic over the outlook for his team in the coming season.

"Despite the fact that we are to lose three of our best players—Harry Jacobs, Whitey Crawford, and Tom Reilly—I am anticipating the greatest football season in the history of Temple University," said Mr. Wolf yesterday. "We have a schedule of games which far more seasoned teams may well envy and I am confident in predicting we will give a good account of ourselves."

Carnival Of Knockouts Satisfy Fans

By ED. FRITZ

TIME waits on no man, and the years which have been spent by Frankie Ritz in the ring may have improved his cunning, but Frankie's resistance quality is not the resistance of 10 years ago.

Tuesday night he stepped into the old Armory ring to combat Jack Herman, a youngster with a deadly right hand, and the result is fistic history; Ritz was knocked out in two minutes.

Years ago the same kind of a blow might have sent Ritz to the floor because in the days of the never-to-return Frankie really was a glutton for punishment.

The force behind the punch Tuesday night was enough to knock him out, but the added force against his jaw when he fell to the floor was more than any boy can be expected to withstand.

But everyone will agree that Frankie tried. He lost. There has to be a winner and loser in every game. Frankie has defeated other boys in the same manner. Tuesday it was his time to lose.

Another thing fans took especial notice of was that Ritz commenced leading with his right hand as soon as he left his corner.

Personally we do not like to see a fellow start that way. It tips off the fact that he depends upon a right to win and his antagonist immediately arrives at this conclusion.

At least, Herman did, and he slipped the right. As soon as Frankie permitted his left guard to drop, Herman, a short middleweight, delivered an overhand right and it landed for a knockout.

RIGHT-HAND punches are perfectly proper at the psychological time, but to continually shoot righthand punches, and nothing else, in our way of thinking, is a ghastly mistake for a fighter to commit.

At least, this proved Jimmie O'Donnell's undoing, as every time he tried a right hand he left it go with such force that Rio slipped it and the blow went skimmering o'er his shoulder.

One punch opened Rio's left eye in the first, but the round was practically even. In the second Rio nailed O'Donnell on the jaw with a right and put a left hook to the stomach.

The two blows, especially the one in the stomach, caused Jimmie's legs to buckle and he was weary when the bell sounded. We expected the knockout to come in the third.

The rest between rounds helped O'Donnell, but he dissipated his strength by going after Rio rather than letting Frankie do the carrying on.

His right hand flew aimlessly and he pumped himself out and at one stage Rio's jab to the head tumbled "O'D" for a count of nine and he was kayoed in the fourth.

The blow that cost him the fight was a quick right to the point of the chin. He went down like Ritz. His head struck the padded ring floor and Chip didn't have to sing out the numerals.

WITH Jack Drake in the role of opponent to Zivie Osborn, things did not go the way he would have liked them to go and Jack had to kiss the canvas in the third round.

Drake had a short edge in the first, as we understand Osborn was under the impression that the bout was an exhibition. "Go out there and fight," demanded Jimmie Dunn.

The second found Osborn really trying harder. His punches were brimful of steam and he knocked Drake down with a left to the chin. Drake took a count and then was wrestled over the ropes.

George Chip, the referee, tried to stop Drake, three seconds before the bell, but Drake paid slight attention to him. Had he went down he would have had seven seconds of grace.

Osborn unleashed a left to the jaw in the third that spilled and knocked out Drake, who had fought himself out. It was not necessary for Chip to count 10.

EVIDENTLY Louie Papke, substituting for Jack Lewis, did not know what he was bumping into with Mickie Solomon as his opponent, and the fight should have been stopped immediately.

Mickie shot a left to the chin that sent Papke down, and the amateurish Louie got up gamely, but was knocked down four more times.

The fifth time he went down Papke took a count, not because he wanted it, but because he did not know what he was doing, and Police Chief Dysart did the right thing in ordering it stopped.

I have always believed that no fan wants to see an unequal match. Papke was no match for Solomon, who is fast, hits hard and had a weight advantage.

Of course, Billy Jolly didn't know anything about Papke and he is not to be censured for making the match, as he had been told that Lewis couldn't fight at the last minute and Papke took his place.

Papke is a game boy, but he doesn't know anything about fighting professionally. The writer likes Solomon, but Osborn would have probably made a far better opponent.

Westminster Takes Lead Early In Contest And Increases It To End

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Jan. 12.—Westminster opened the Tri-State Conference season here last night by defeating Geneva by a score of 29-18. Most of the Westminster scoring was due to field goals, while Geneva made most of their points by way of the foul route.

Rubenstein opened hostilities by scoring a foul, giving the Covenanters the lead for a minute. But Charley Ayers, bulwark of the guard posts for Westminster, soon tallied from the field and put the United Presbyterians in the lead.

Connor, with four field goals and Delahunty with two goals and seven fouls, were leading scorers for Westminster, while Rubenstein made two field goals and three fouls for the Covenanters.

Between the halves, President M. M. Pearce of Geneva was introduced to the audience by Graduate Manager A. A. McDonald. President Pearce then presented to President W. Charles Wallace the Tri-State Conference cross country cup, won this year by the Blue and White harriers. At half time the score stood Westminster 12, Geneva 8.

Sport Ritticisms

By BILL RITT

Jack Dempsey, Hollywood hotel owner, has started training again. That's a sure sign his hotel business will have to get along by itself about next September.

* * *

You remember Dempsey. He was the first man to discover that four and 10 equal 10 in Chicago.

* * *

Dempsey also is the only fellow in the world who made more money and friends as a "has been" than an "is".

* * *

As a champ Dempsey used to be so ferocious he didn't have to knock out his opponent. All he did was frown and they fainted.

* * *

Jack bounced the boys so hard they were never the same any more. Look at Carpentier. He thinks he's a dancer now.

* * *

And Looie Firpo. He went back to South America. All you have to do is read the Nicaragua news to realize that a man who does that is goofy.

* * *

Then the movies reformed Jack's features. He became so handsome Gene Tunney failed to recognize the great champ and whipped him.

* * *

It rained so hard during that Philadelphia bout that Jack's makeup washed off after the fight. Horror stricken, Tunney realized then who he had whipped. But it was too late. Gene was the champion.

Thomas Malone, the Australian sprinter, ran 175 yards in 17 1-4 seconds at Norward Park, Australia, July 28, 1883.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of Fort Phil Kearney—Part XIII
"Where Is Fetterman?"

GENERAL CARRINGTON'S FEARS WERE CONFIRMED WHEN THE PICKET POSTS REPORTED THAT CAPT. FETTERMAN'S COMMAND WAS NOWHERE TO BE SEEN. BUT THAT THE SOUND OF HEAVY FIRING WAS COMING OVER LODGE TRAIL RIDGE FROM THE DIRECTION OF RENO VALLEY

UPON RECEIPT OF THIS OMINOUS NEWS, CARRINGTON SENT CAPT. TEN EYCK WITH FIFTY-SEVEN MEN TO THE AID OF FETTERMAN. A LITTLE LATER, FORTY MORE MEN WERE SENT FROM THE SORELY DEPLETED GARRISON TO SUPPORT TEN EYCK.

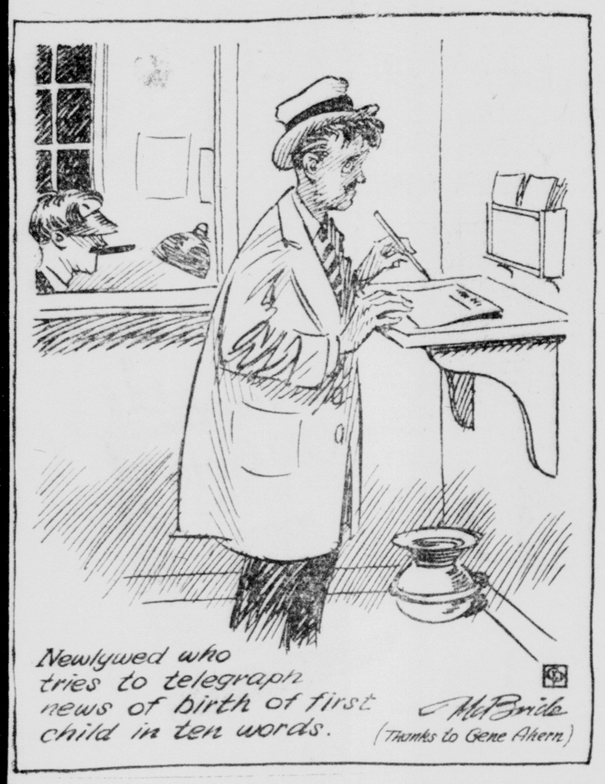

IT WAS NOT LONG BEFORE A TROOPER RETURNED WITH A STARTLING MESSAGE FROM TEN EYCK: "THE VALLEY THE OTHER SIDE OF RIDGE FILLED WITH INDIANS WHO ARE THREATENING ME! FIRING HAS STOPPED. NO SIGN OF FETTERMAN. SEND A HOWITZER!"

REACHING THE CREST OF LODGE TRAIL RIDGE, AN APPALLING SIGHT HAD GREETED THE GAZE OF TEN EYCK AND HIS MEN. THE VALLEY BELOW HIM WAS SWARMING WITH SIOUX, DARTING ABOUT LIKE ANGRY BEES. THE FIRING HAD CEASED, AND NOTHING WAS TO BE SEEN OF FETTERMAN'S COMMAND.

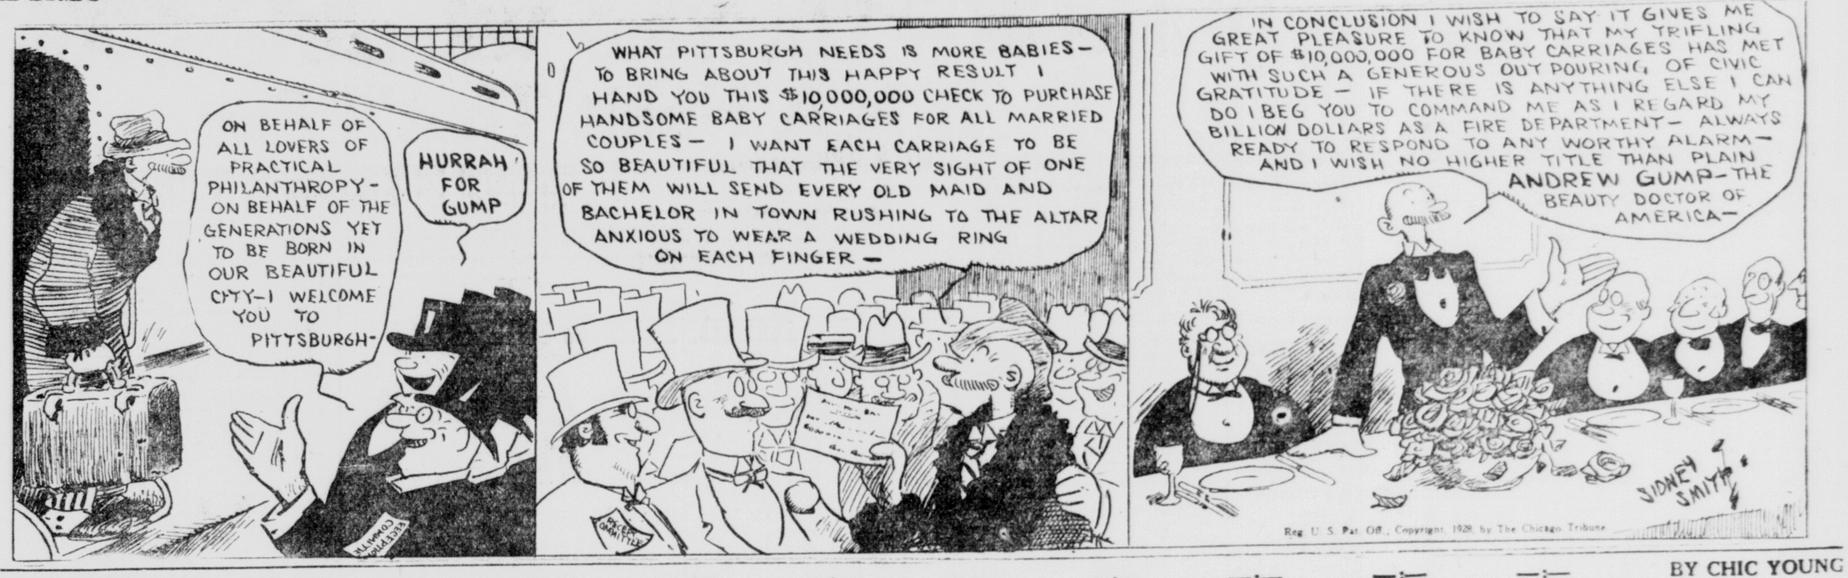

TOMORROW—INTO THE TRAP.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—In anticipation of a decline in the volume of brokers' loans to be shown in the weekly report of the Reserve Board today, and in response to further short-covering and speculative buying of the industrial and specialty stocks, prices moved upward spiritedly in the first period. Greene Cananea, Radio, International Nickel and other speculative leaders advanced from 1 to 6 points and numerous fractional gains were recorded in the active steel, motor, copper and oil stocks.

Bullish forces in the financial district called attention to the enlarging back-log of forward orders for steel, as revealed in the monthly tonnage report of the Steel Corporation.

Houston led the oils, with a 4 point jump to 151½. Marland and the Pan Americans were firm. Radio sold in large volume between 100 and 101. General Motors and U. S. Steel gained more than a point in the first half hour, and most of the low-priced motor stocks added fractionally to the market values.

KNIGHTS ENJOY FINE MEETING

K. Of C. Members Gather At Home On Wednesday Evening

An interesting program was carried out last night at the regular meeting of St. Mary's council No. 512, Knights of Columbus, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those in attendance.

The program and an oyster supper was provided through the efforts of Lecturer Stephen N. Griffith and his committee in a highly pleasing manner.

Bernard N. Hanlon of the New Castle Motor club, gave an interesting talk on the Pennsylvania vehicle law as it relates to motor vehicles, while appropriate remarks were made by the Very Rev. F. F. O'Shea and Rev. Fr. F. S. Clifford.

It was announced at the meeting that Lecturer Griffith and his committee were making arrangements for a dancing party to be held in the near future.

It was also stated that the K. of C. bowling league is now under way and that a regular schedule for the coming weeks has been arranged.

Estimate $26,000,000 Paid By State Auto Owners In Year 1927

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 12.—Owners and operators of motor cars in Pennsylvania paid approximately $26,000,000, exclusive of the gas tax, to the state department of highways during 1927.

A complete financial statement for the year, made public today by the bureau of motor vehicles showed that while receipts exceeded that amount, deductions and refunds brought the sum slightly below the record total. It exceeded by almost $2,000,000 the total receipts of 1926.

Ttotal passenger registrations were 1,365,826, a seven per cent gain over the 1926 totals. Truck registrations were 217,937 less than a six per cent gain.

Both motorcycles and motor bicycles showed slight decrease over the previous year. There were 14,267 motorcycles and 106 motor bicycles registered.

Operators who renewed totals 1,570,633 during the year and an additional 224,383 successfully passed the examinations.

Motor fines increased 17.5 per cent over 1926, totaling 437,681. Motor funds at interest earned $605,004 in the year.

Little Capital School Girl May Become Empress

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The big automobile from the Japanese embassy stopped in front of the Friends school in I street.

Many "diplomatic children" attend the Friends school.

The liveried Mongolian chauffeur descended and opened the auto door deferentially, making a hissing noise through his teeth, as he sucked his breath inward, to prevent any of it from polluting the atmosphere in the vicinity of the august personage who was about to merge from the interior of the vehicle.

* * *

A little girl got out.

It was Setsu Matsudaira. Setsu's 17, but she's a wee bit of femininity.

The chauffeur bowed from the hips until his nose nearly touched the sidewalk. The hissing sound increased, all but drowning out the blatting of auto horns for a city square in each direction.

Setsu acknowledged the salute graciously. At the end of a strap, she was dangling several text books, buckled together.

The Friends school portal opened and received her.

* * *

Within an informal committee was waiting.

Pupils of the Friends school, with its diplomatic clientele, are accustomed to what, in other schools, might seem unusual, but here was something, even for the Friends school, a trifle out of the ordinary.

The self-selected and tacitly-recognized chairman of the committee confronted Setsu.

To her gaze he held up a copy of a morning newspaper, so folded as to bring into sharp relief what is known to the journalistic profession as a broken-backed head, in three lines, to this effect:

MISS SETSU MATSUDAIRA
TO WED PRINCE CHICIBU,
JAP EMPEROR'S BROTHER

"Setsu," said the chairman accusingly, "does this mean you?"

* * *

There was no denying it.

It meant some tear-stained eyes at the Friends school, too.

The parting of the ways has arrived when your school girl friend becomes a royal princess—who may wear a crown one day.

* * *

Washington entertained Prince Chichibu about a twelvemonth ago.

To all vocal intents and purposes, with his Oxford education, he could easily have passed for an Englishman.

His father, the emperor, had just died. Chichibu was in mourning, so we didn't see much of him, but he seemed a nice chap. We like to think of him so, as husband of our little playmate, Setsu.

As for Setsu—shut your eyes, hear her speak only, and you'd swear she was born here.

If accent alone counted, this might be an Anglo-American wedding.

* * *

Prince Chichibu was Ambassador Matsudaira's guest in Washington when the former was on his way home from England for his father's funeral last year.

Was it then that he fell in love with Setsu?

Again, we like to think so—that's it's a real love match, such as there are so few of in royal circles that it's hard to believe in them.

Still, there's a little circumstantial evidence to support such a theory in this case. Setsu was here, the prince was a caller and now they're engaged. It's logical.

Lucky Chichibu!

Mild Weather To Be Continued For Three More Days

Weather Bureau Says Mild Winter Weather To Remain For Three-Day Period

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—A remarkable spell of mild mid-winter weather now a week old will continue for three more days at least, the U. S. Weather Bureau said today.

A vast warm area extends into the northwest states and Canadian provinces. Edmonton, Alberta, the farthest north from which weather reports are received reported a temperature of 34 this morning about the same as Pittsburgh. Medicine Hat had 34 and Winnipeg 36.

Light rain is likely tonight in this district but the temperature will vary little, the forecaster said. A stationary high pressure area over the plateau region west of the Rockies is responsible for the mildness.

(International News Service)

Mrs. Martha Stewart, 24 Tyrone, suffered a broken right hip and spinal injuries. Edward Stewart, 25 received severe cuts. Lamborn the driver and Miss Margaret Custer, 19 were injured on the chest.

Jones & Laughlin President Resigns

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12. — Charles A. Fisher, today presented his resignation as president of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation, to the board of directors. Fisher's reason for retiring is his desire to give up active business, it was stated.

Three New Managers

By Feg Murray

The fact that the American league defeated the National league in four straight games in the last world series may or may not have had anything to do with the fact that three new managers were appointed in the older circuit for 1928 while there was only one change in the victorious league. So while Roger Peckinpaugh is the only new face among the A. L. bosses, Bill McKechnie, Burt Shotton and Jack Slattery have appeared among the ranks of new managers in the John Heydler group.

Of course Bill McKechnie is not new as a manager. He successfully managed the Pirates into the 1925 world's championship and last year acted as coach and assistant to Manager O'Farrell of the Cardinals whom he will now manage in turn.

The appointment of Burt Shotton as manager of the Phillies was quite a surprise mainly because it necessitated the retirement of "Stuffy" McInnis. Shotton was formerly an outfielder with the Browns and Washington and later the "Sunday manager" of the Cardinals under Branch Rickey. Then he made a name for himself as boss of the Syracuse team of the International league which finished a close second to Buffalo in 1927.

Mr. Jack Slattery's job in Boston looks pretty hard. He come to a seventh place club that needs a lot of help and he has had nothing to do with professional baseball for a long time. Jack has lived in Boston nearly all his life and coached the leading college teams of Massachusetts—Harvard, Tufts and Boston college—and thinks eats and sleeps baseball. A former major league catcher, he specializes on good pitching and it will be no surprise to see the Braves show a decided improvement in that department in 1928.

Feg Murray Says.

A. "No maple syrup in the District of Columbia next spring."

B. "Why not?"

A. "Because Saap of George Washington University does not choose to run."

At the same time, Miss Katherine Boobyear of Pittsburgh, a member of the freshman class, was appointed to the reportorial staff.

"Sleep All Night Now."

Says Penn. Man, "Not Bothered By Bladder Weakness at Night."

A. C. Smith, 41 West Broad St., Bethlehem, Pa., says in his own home paper, the Bethlehem Globe: "I now rise in the morning refreshed and feeling fine. Will gladly tell my experience by words or letter."

Getting up nights for bladder relief is nature's warning of danger ahead. Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels, driving out abnormal deposits, neutralizes excessive acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes getting up nights. The tablets cost 2 cents at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Paisley's Pharmacy.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

For the fan who likes basketball this season the coming weeks offer him a full portion of the fastest basketball seen here in many years. Not only has New Castle high school got a fast team this year, but Westminster college has one that is smooth.

Watched them play around with Geneva last night and the way they took care of the Reformed Presbyterians was just too bad. From the opening minute of play there never was any question as to which was the better team and the score of 29-18 is about the right difference between them.

Where Westminster gathered in all those giants is a question for Andy McDonald to answer. Most of them look as though they were standing on a soap box and any one of them would do for a center.

They have two stars up there this year whose names would hardly indicate a United Presbyterian lineage, but how they can play. Delehanty and O'Donovan, and they bid fair to make a team name something like O'Toole and Kelley, Gallagher and Shean, Mulligan and Garrity or Ham and Cabbage.

One lad up there this year—Fisher by name—must come from the far north. He has a protective covering of hair on his shoulders and back that looks like a Persian prayer rug. This fur-bearing freshman stands about 21 hands high, handles himself like a veteran and has all the co-eds yelling for him while he is in the game.

The gym was packed to the rafters for the game and Market street looked like an automobile show. If the Titans play that kind of basketball all year, and they have no reason to do otherwise, Andy McDonald is going to have to hire a couple of boys to count the receipts.

And the enthusiasm. Several times it seemed as though the walls would fall in with the cheering. It was a splendid demonstration of "the old Westminster spirit", and between us girls and boys they have something to cheer.

The feature of the preliminary game between the Reserves and a team from Farrell was not the playing. It was the refereeing. Red Kelly, a strawberry blonde from New Castle, was handling the whistle but in the excitement of the game thought he was playing. In one close play Red was standing under the bucket watching the play. He edged over to what would have been a beautiful scoring position and in the excitement yelled "shoot" to one of the players. He blows a mean whistle at that.

The roaming up to that basketball game took up the entire evening but it was one well enjoyed. Tonight the monthly match of the New Castle school board will be played, with the nine members in their places in the North street junior high school.

This new motor code is meant to apply to all motor vehicles, or else somebody is wrong. And if it does it includes those big Cleveland and Pittsburgh buses. A bad accident was narrowly averted at the corner of Mill and Falls streets Wednesday at noon. The bus was headed east on Falls and a big car was making a run for the hill on North Mill street. Instead of stopping at the intersection as he is supposed to do, the bus driver kept on going. As a result the two cars nearly met at the intersection and only quick work on the part of the pleasure car driver saved an accident. He whirled his car into Falls street or otherwise the obituary column might have another name today.

There are some compensations for a school teacher besides the monthly salary check. Saw a young teacher coming up Long avenue this morning towards the Lincoln-Garfield school. As she got near the school a half a dozen youngsters made a wild dash for her and nearly carried her into the school yard.
